Student Life

Presented by the Senior Class of Riverside High School
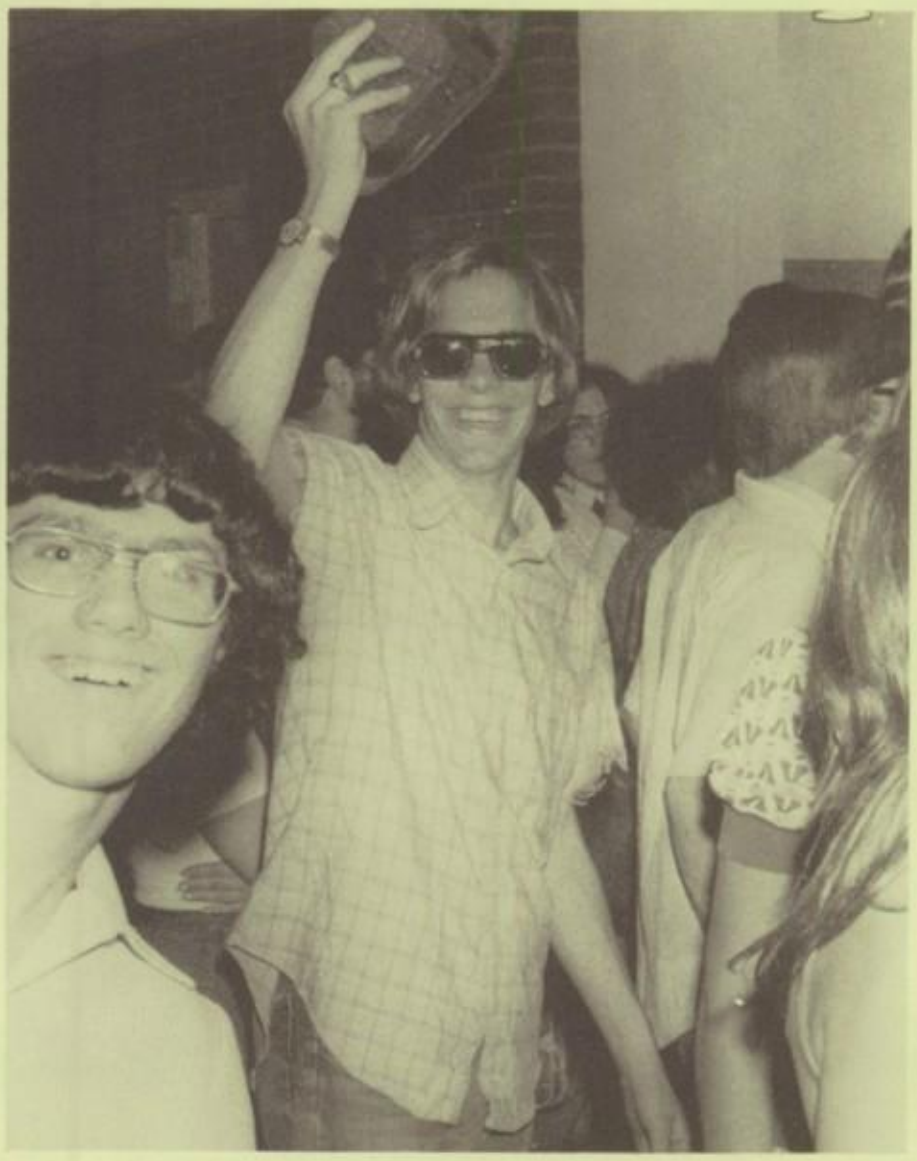
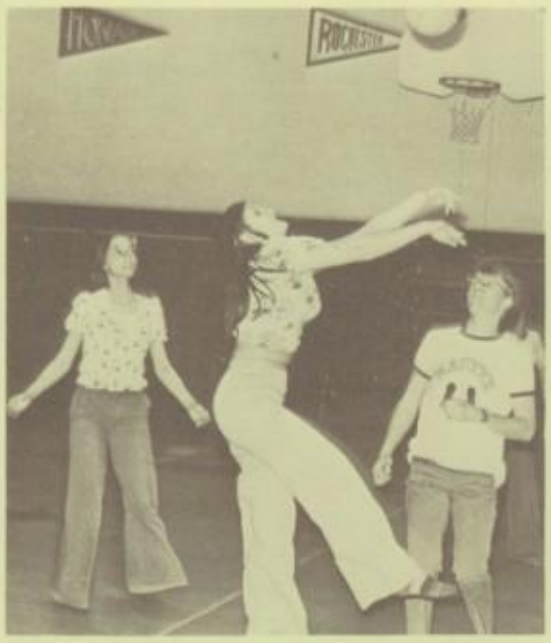
The 1974 Pathfinder Volume XII





Searching high and low
For that hidden dream or idea was the motivation of seniors
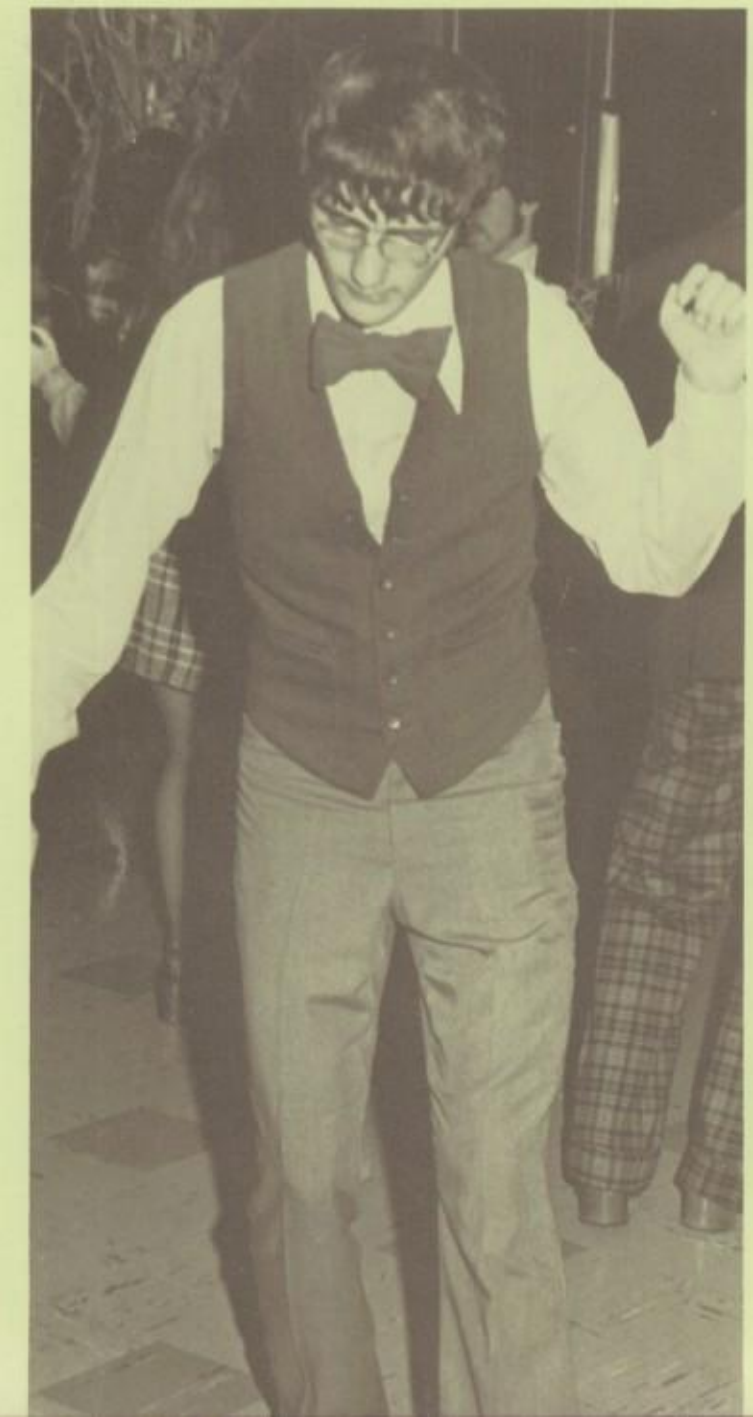
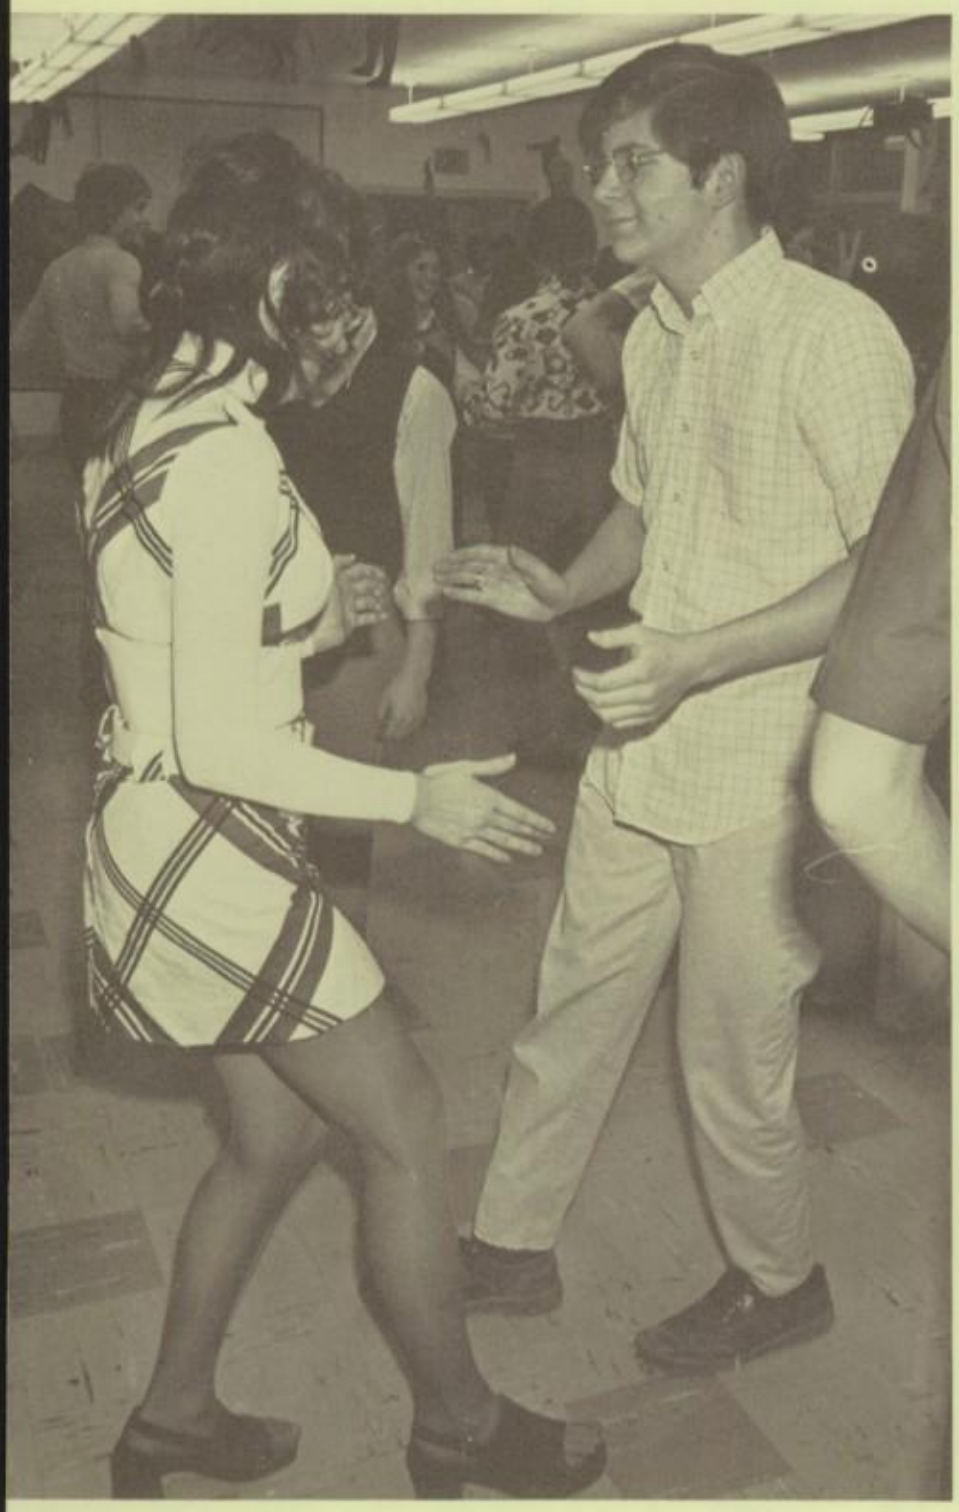
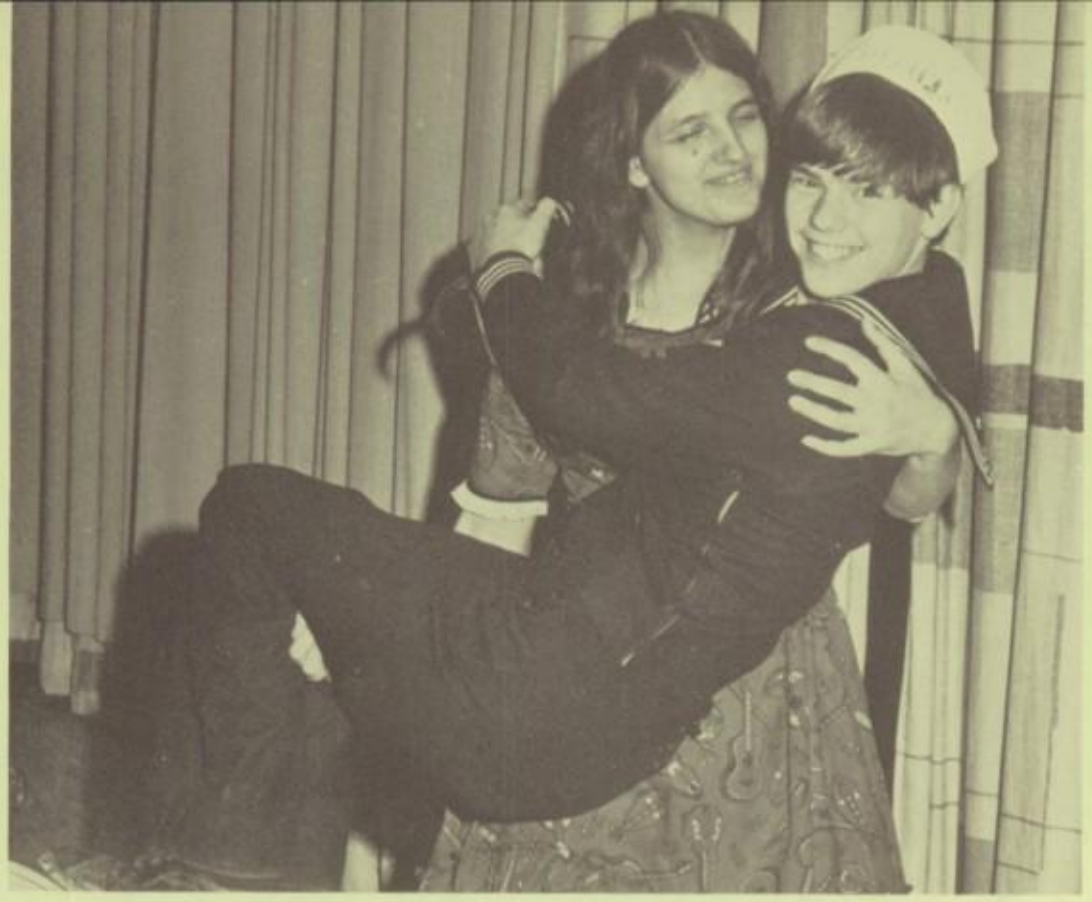
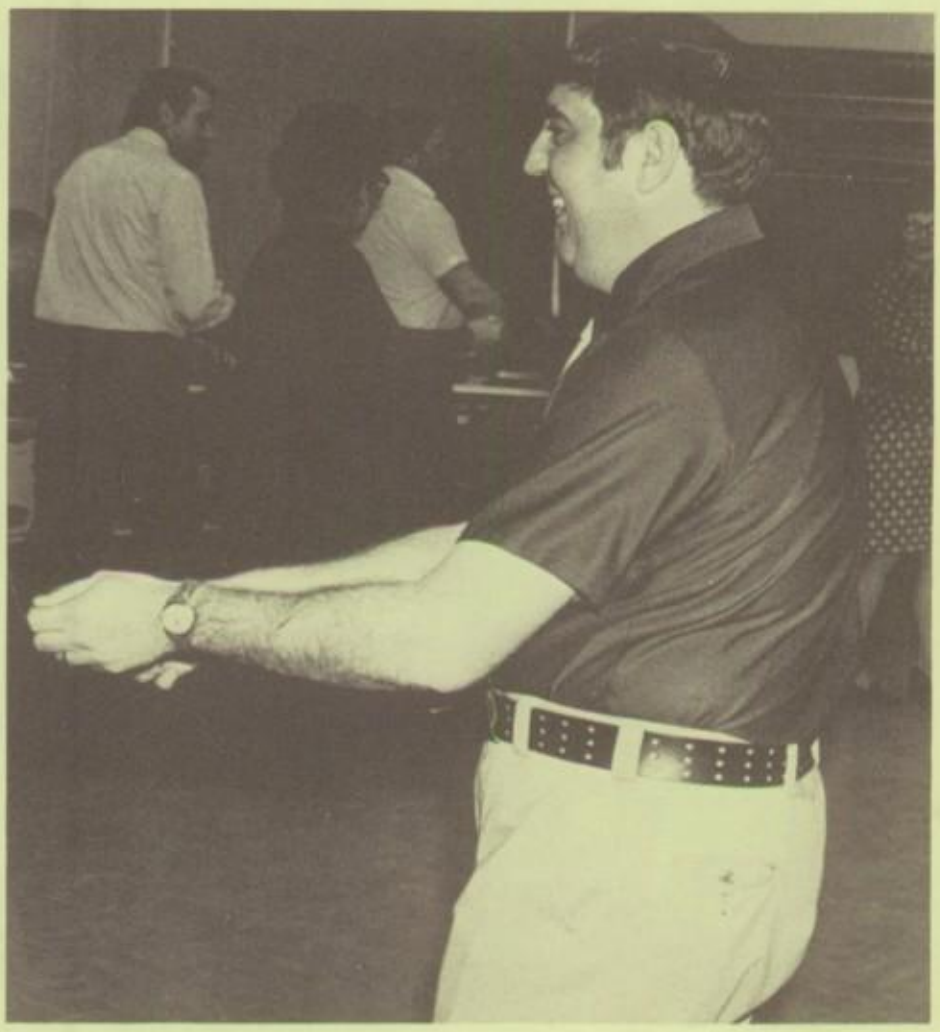
Working through the years.







Happiness has
A joyous ring
In everyway
It's true
Doing whatever
You do best
And trying
New things too.



Marching in step
To the beat of the drum.
Full of vigor and pep,
Our band was surpassed by none.

RHS
RHS

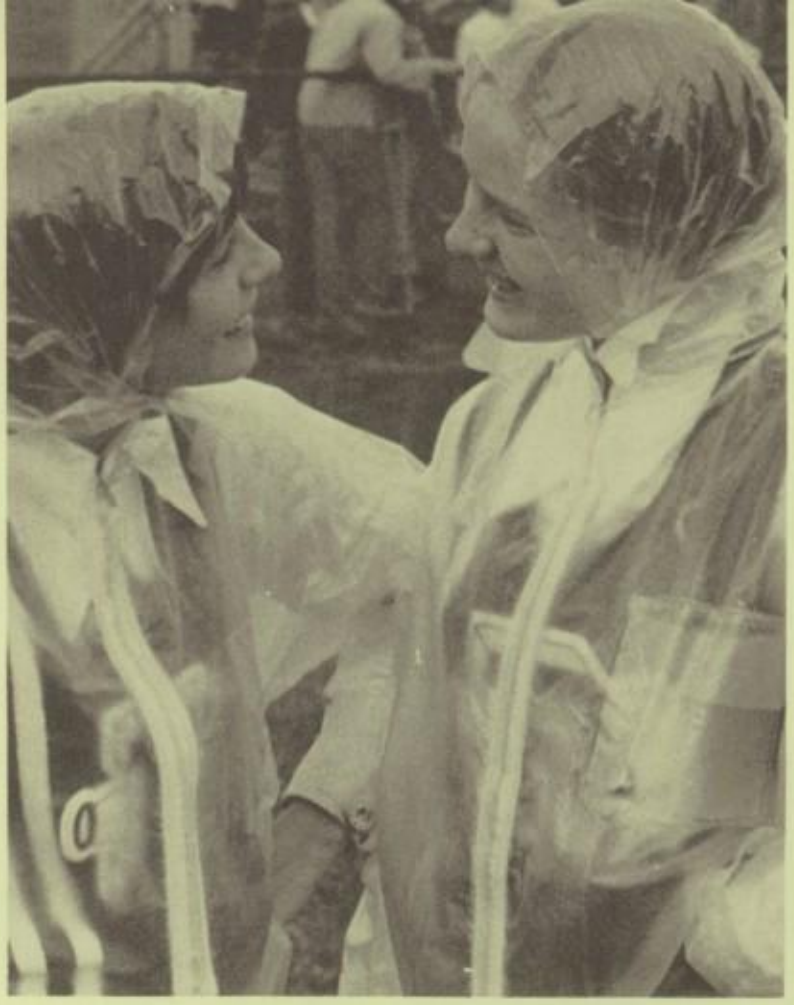
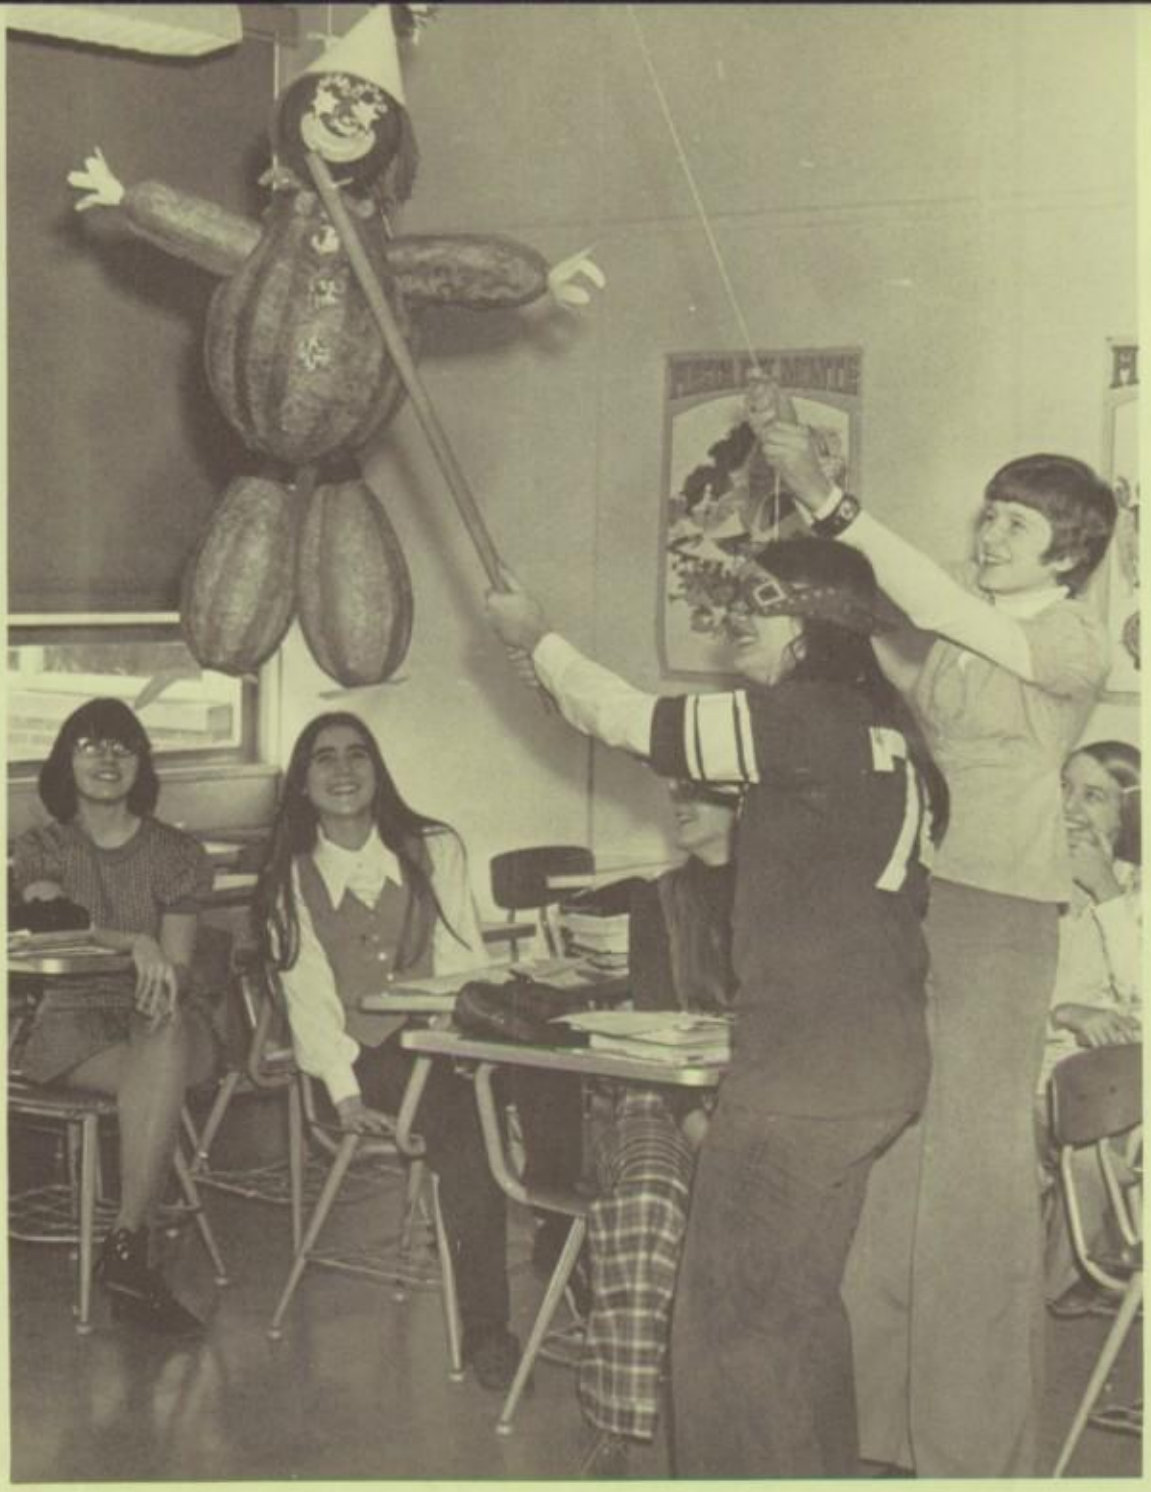
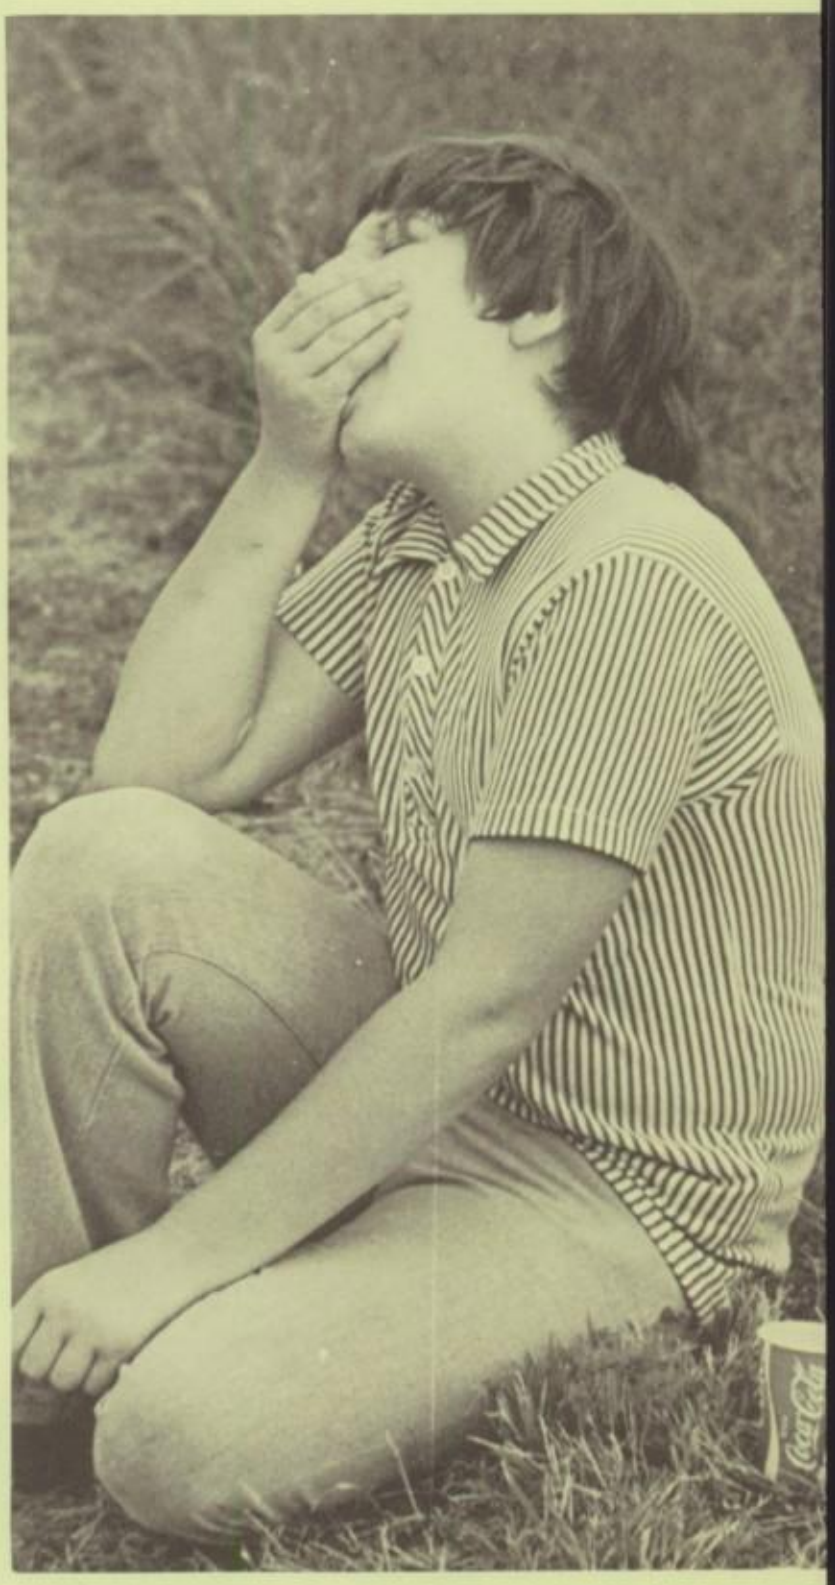
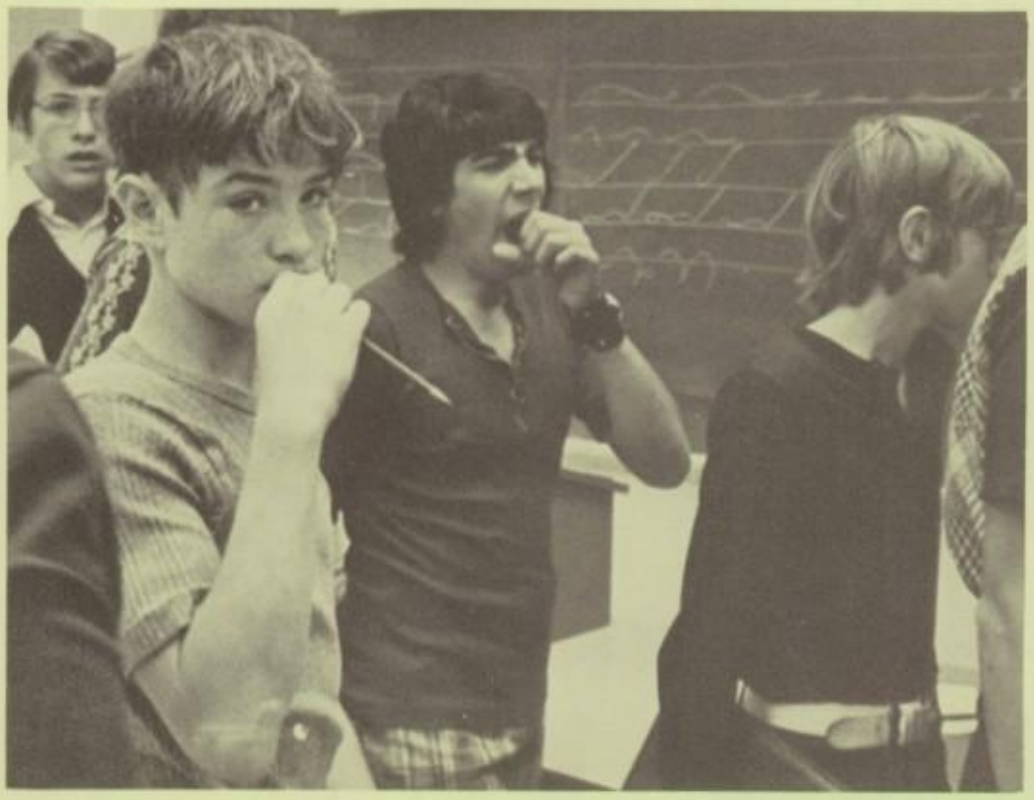
School is the place
That most kids hate.
For graduation,
Most can't wait.
Yet when they leave
They soon realize,
Those were the best
Days of their lives.

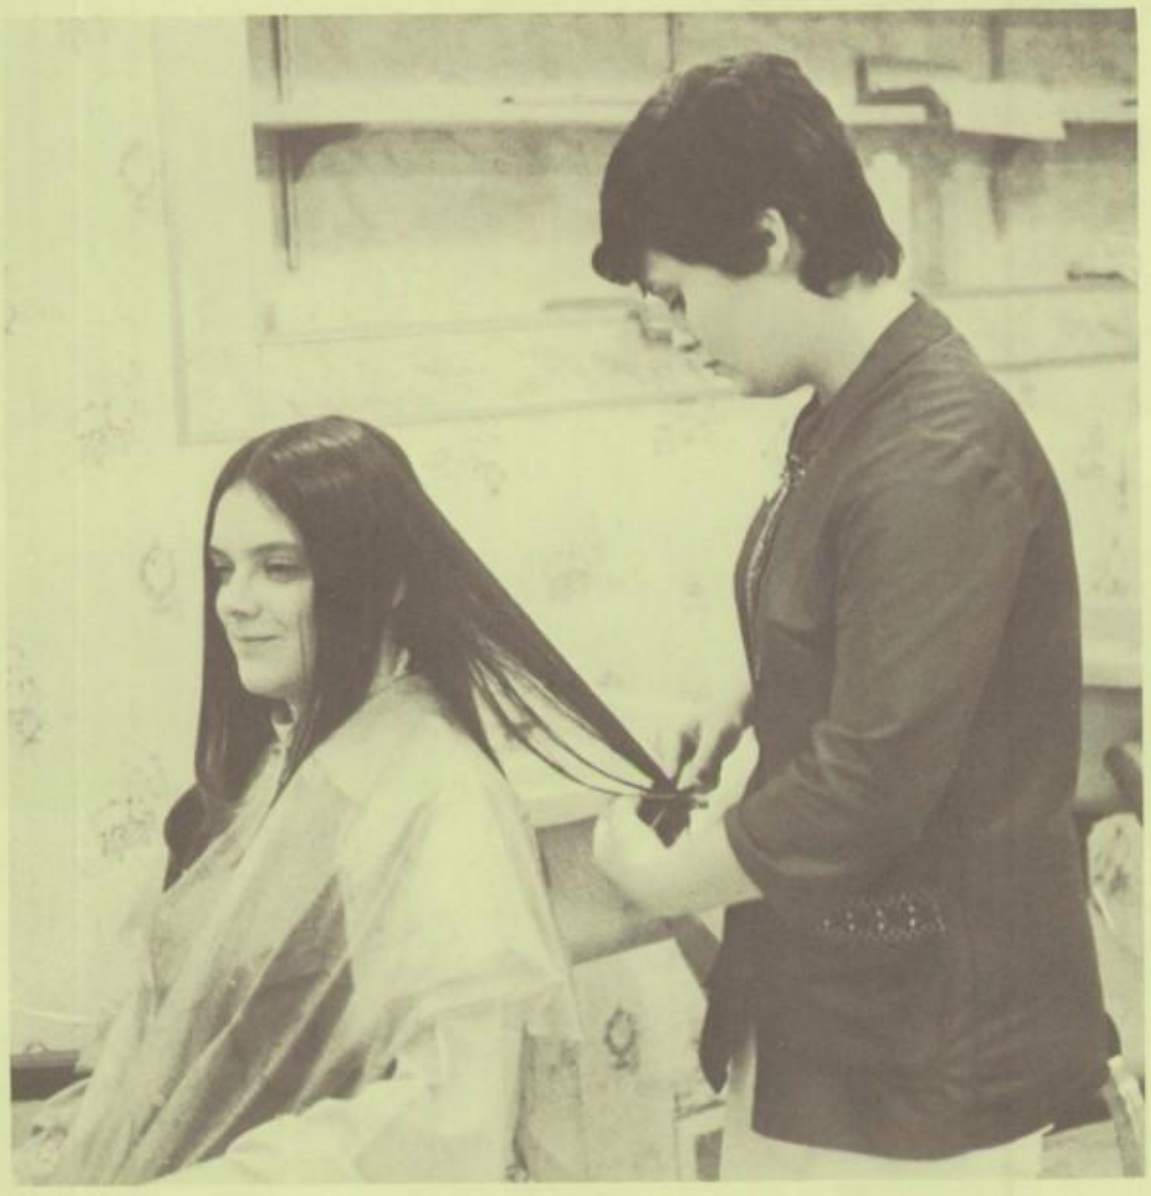






School is where
You learn to do
The things you
Like the best.
No matter if
It's work or play
You rarely take a rest.





Mickey

Friendship is the Flower of life.
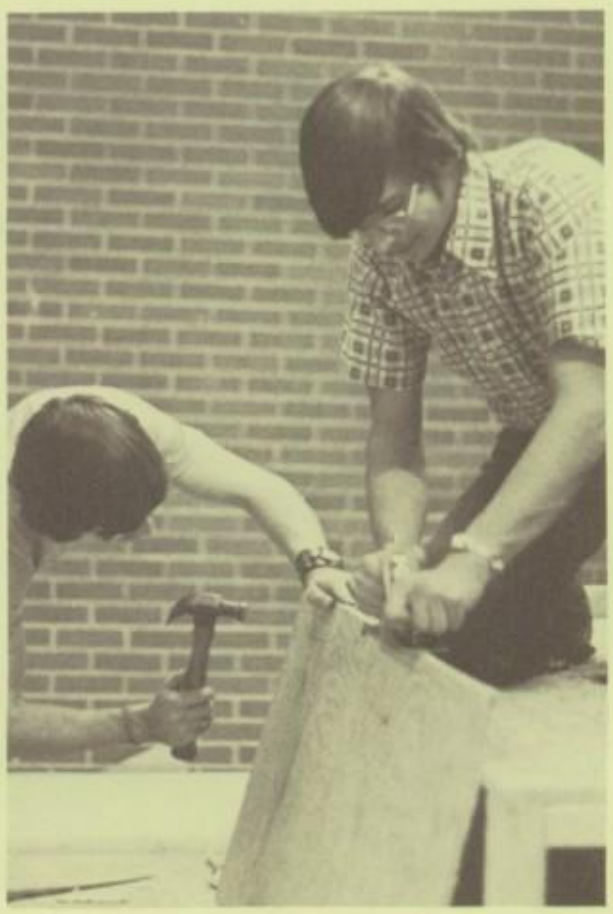
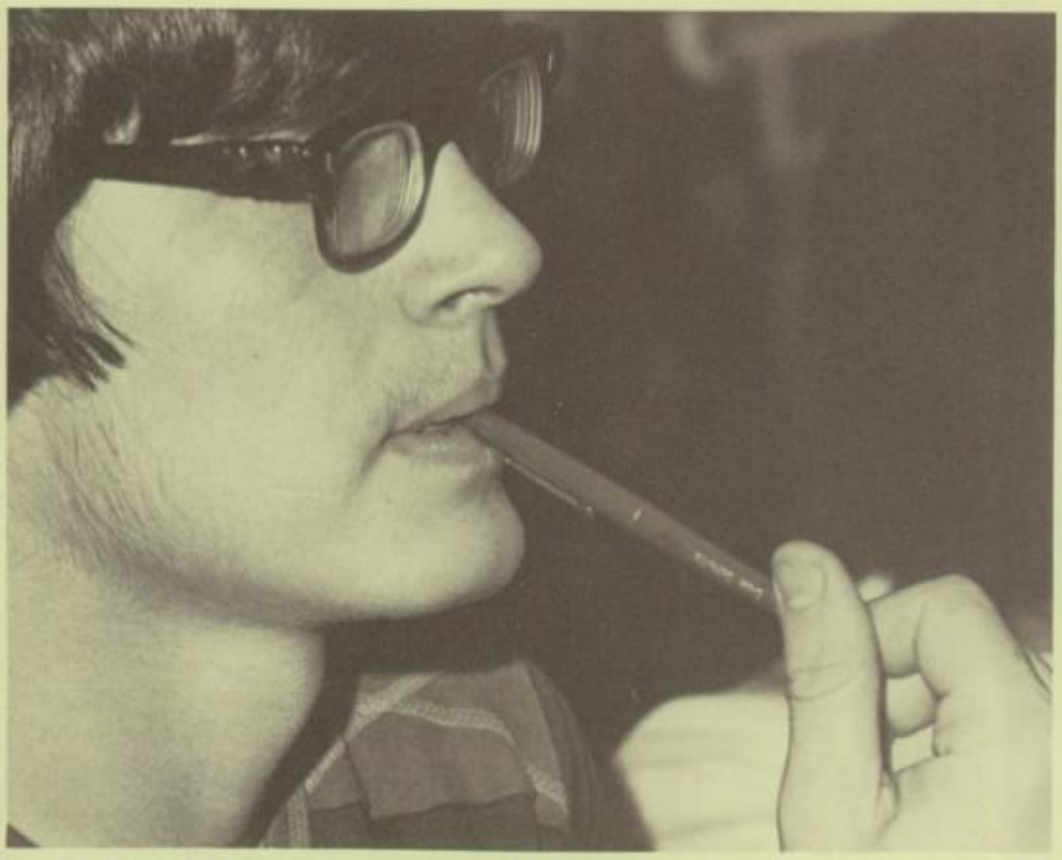
Growing ever stronger
Through the years.
Blossoming into a
Meaningful relationship
Only few may share.





The class of '75
Was spirited and alive.
It worked with
Unity and cooperation
And looked to the future
With anticipation.

It was a day of Reuniting with
The past.
A time of cheering
And rooting for
The team.
The excitement of
The day was offset by the Crowning of the Queen.

Being on
The Yearbook Staff
Meant a lot
Of hard work
With each member
Doing his share
To complete the Best Pathfinder yet.

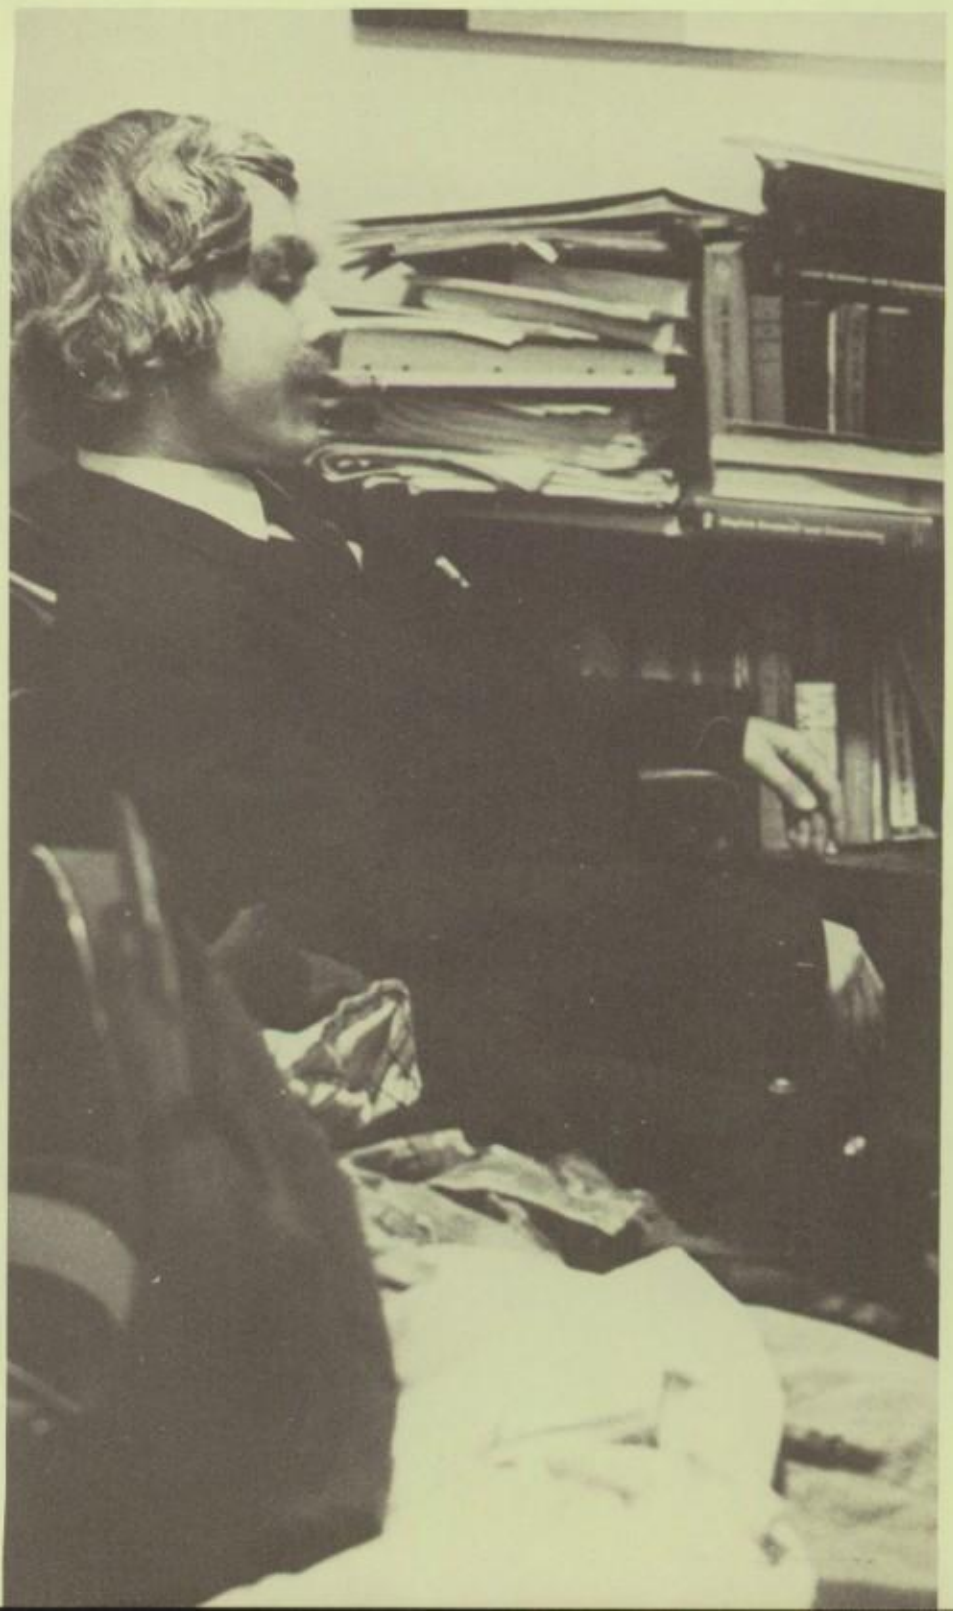
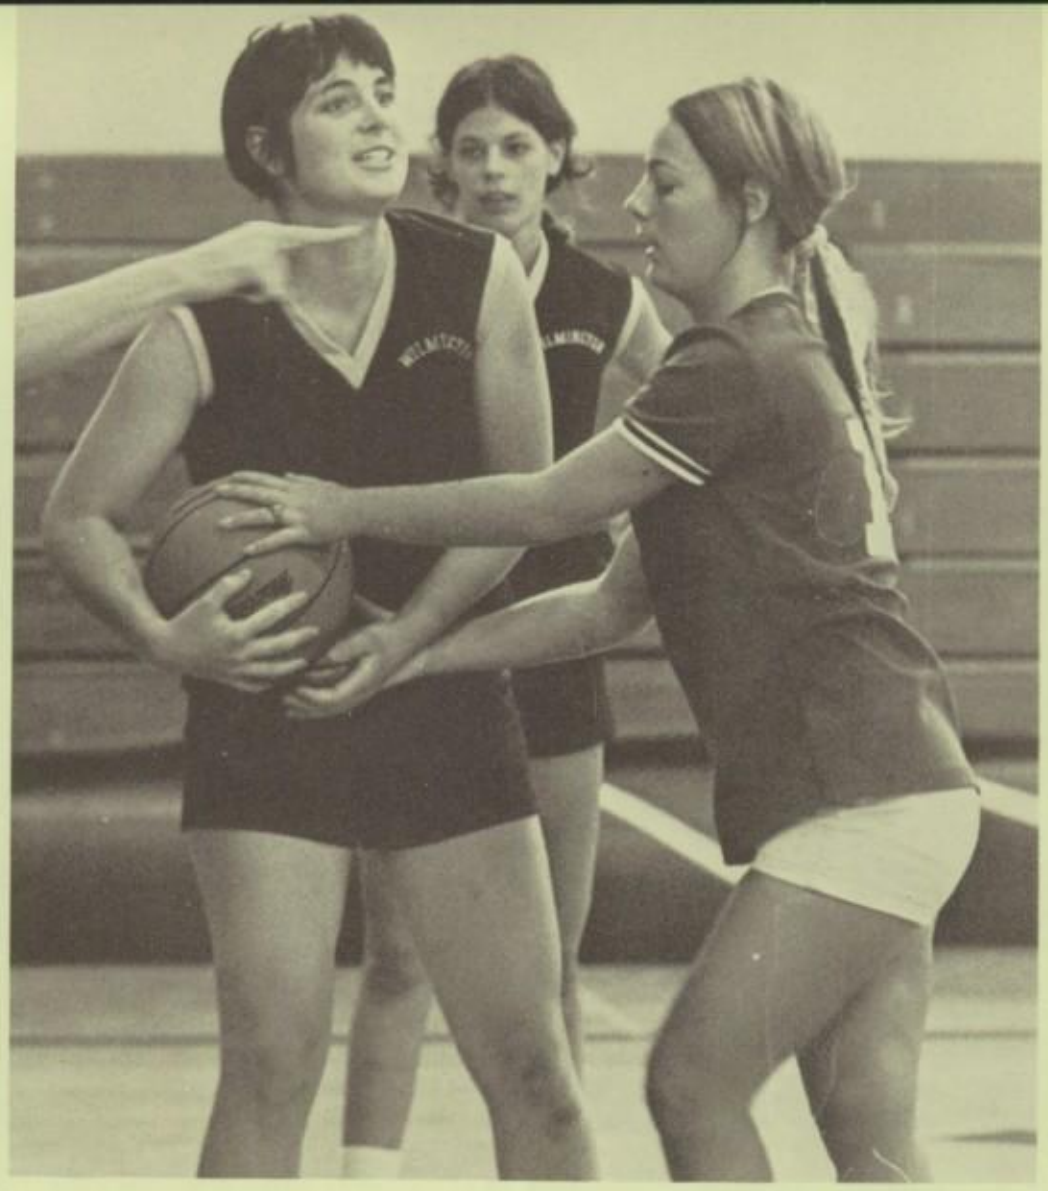
Giving all they had
Even more than expected,
Riverside's faculty members
Were sincere in their
Interest in the future
Of their students.

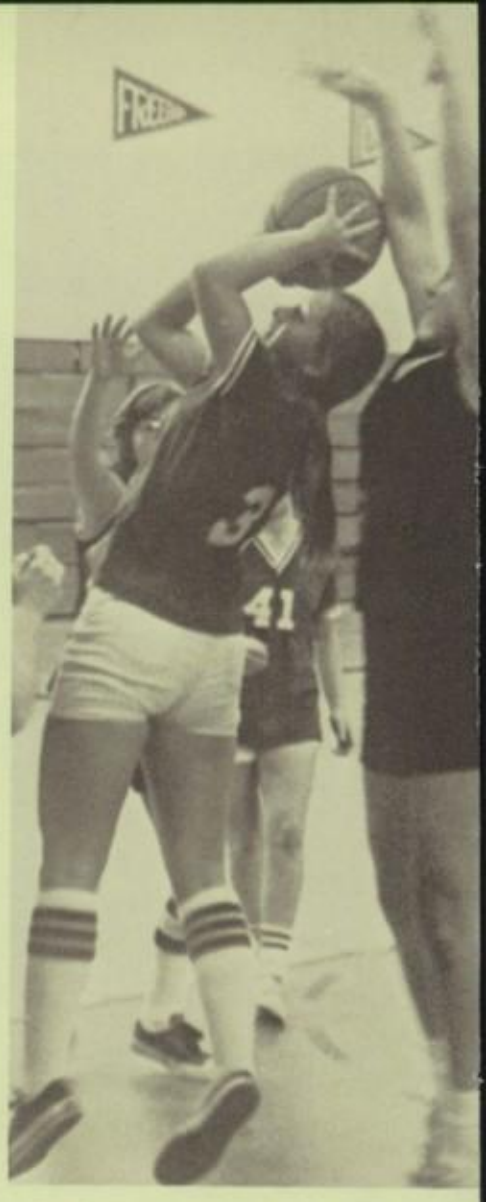
The Spanish Classes
Hosted a spectacular
Spanish Fiesta.
Everyone enjoyed
The games and skits,
As they danced to
The Mexican Hat Dance.



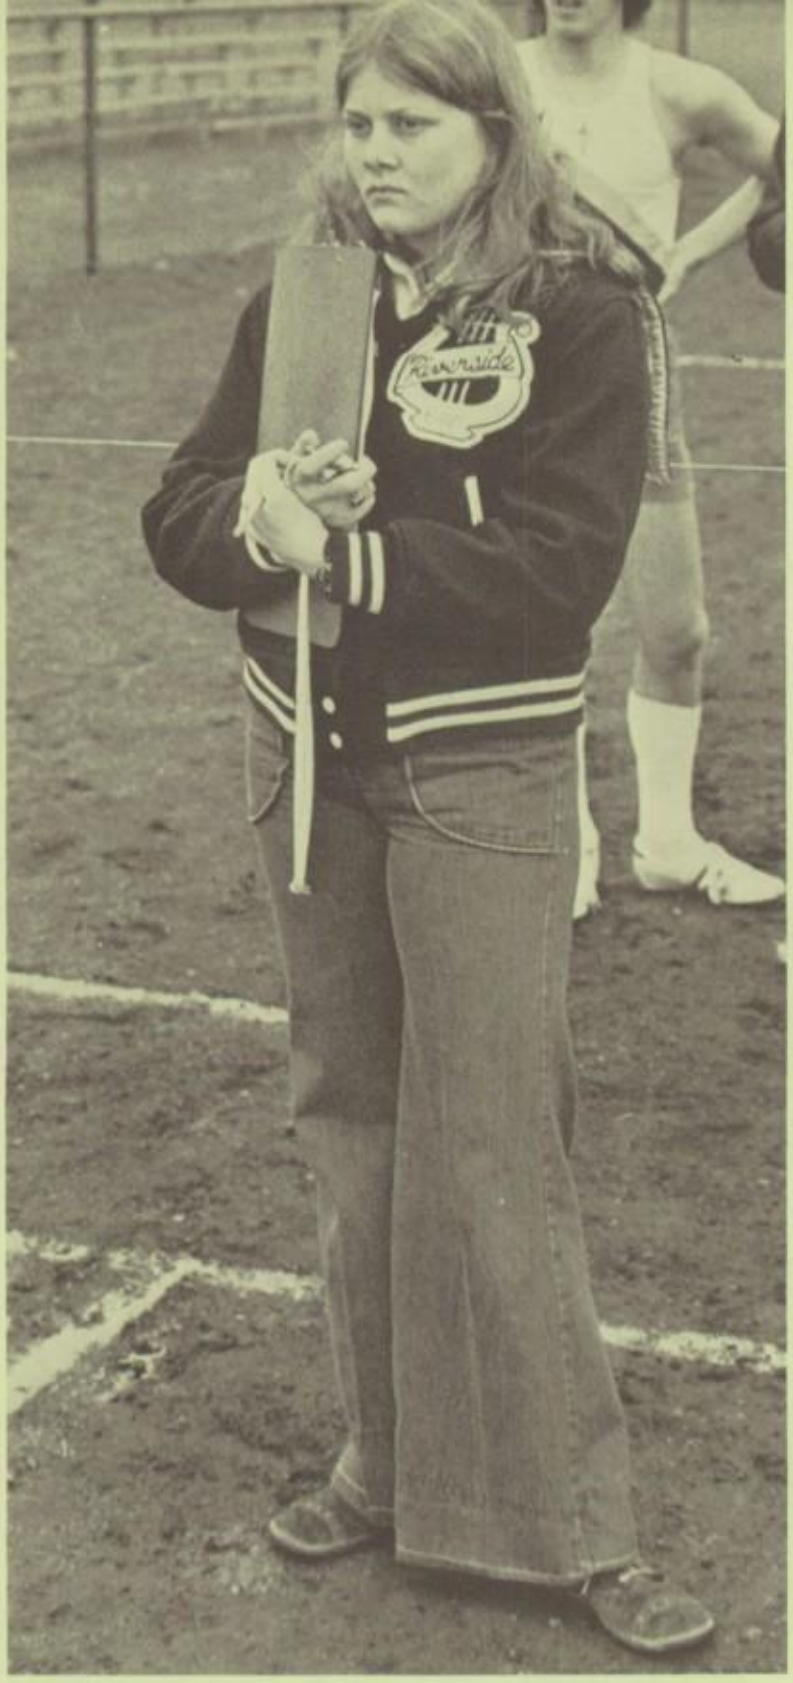
It took time and careful management
To make a successful play.
Many hours were spent at the school
To rehearse for the nearing day.
"You Can't Take it With You"
Was a comedy and yet,
It contained a basic lesson
That the audience won't forget.

Fore! They would call.
Then with eyes on the ball
The golf team teed off
To win over all.

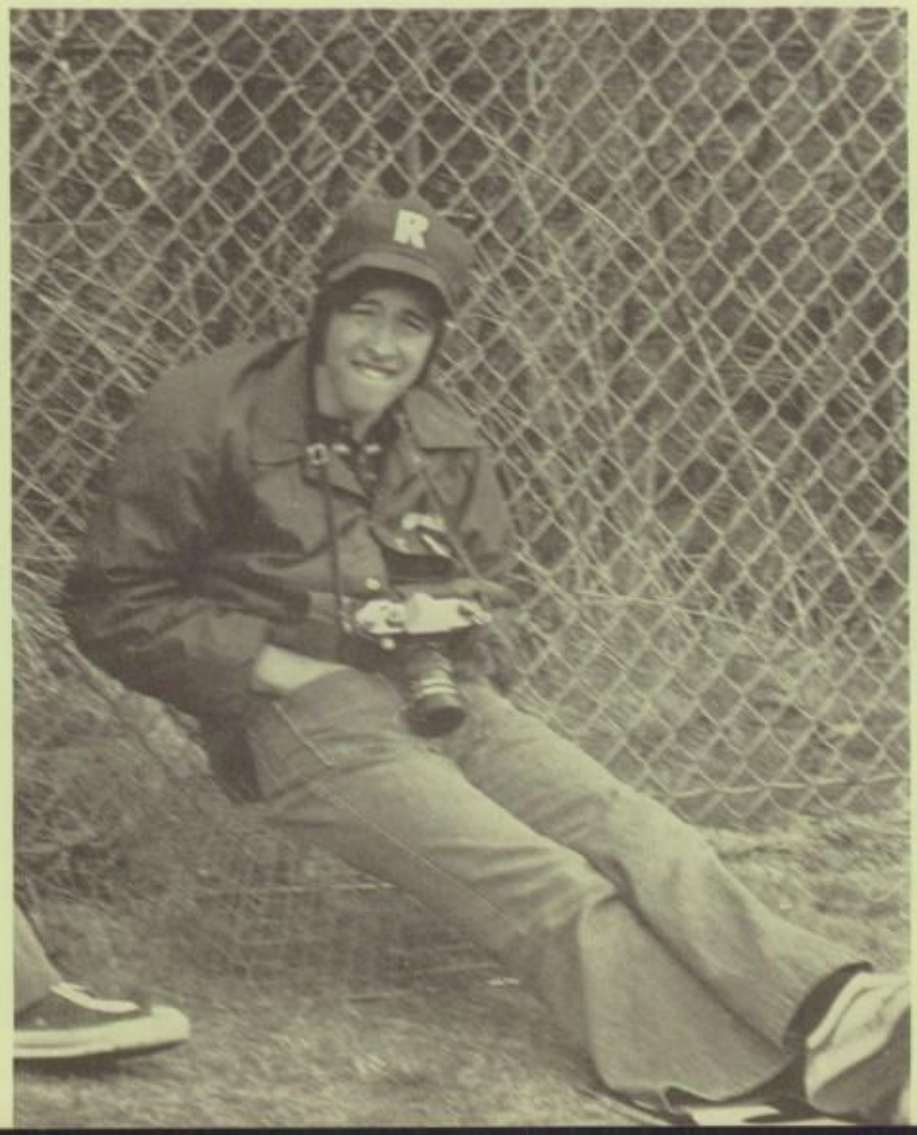


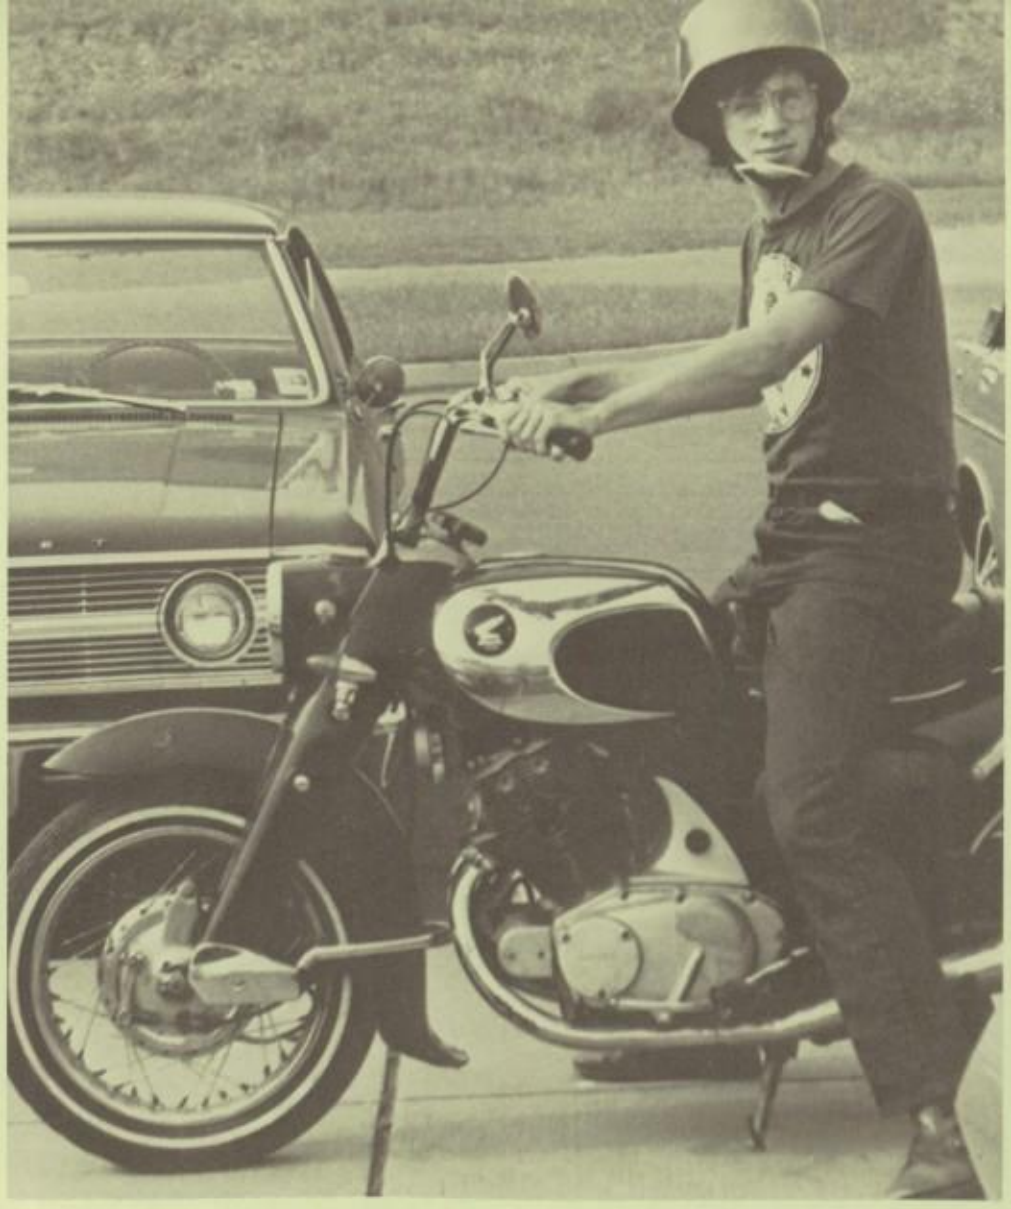


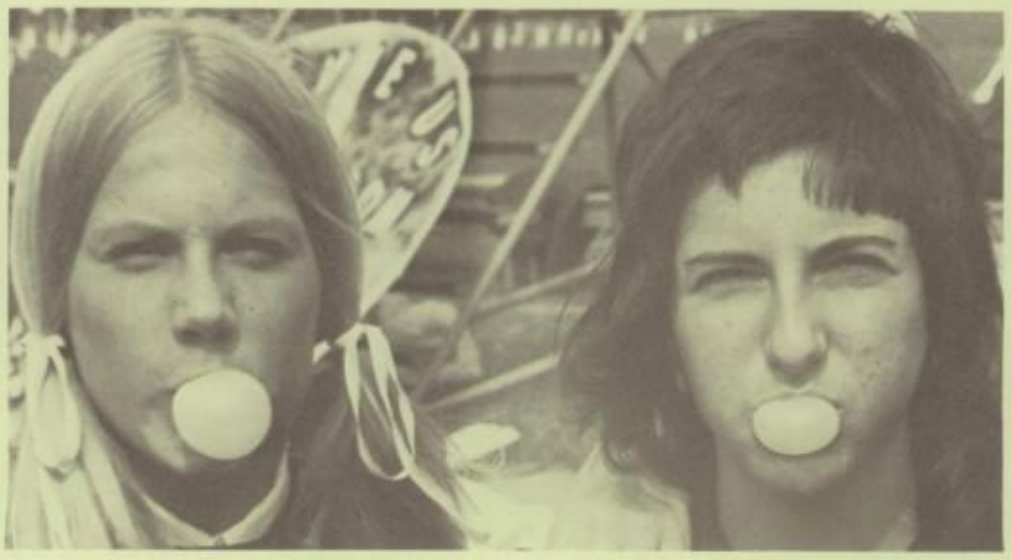
Tip off the center,
Dribble down the floor,
Shoot for a basket,
Then Score! Score! Score!

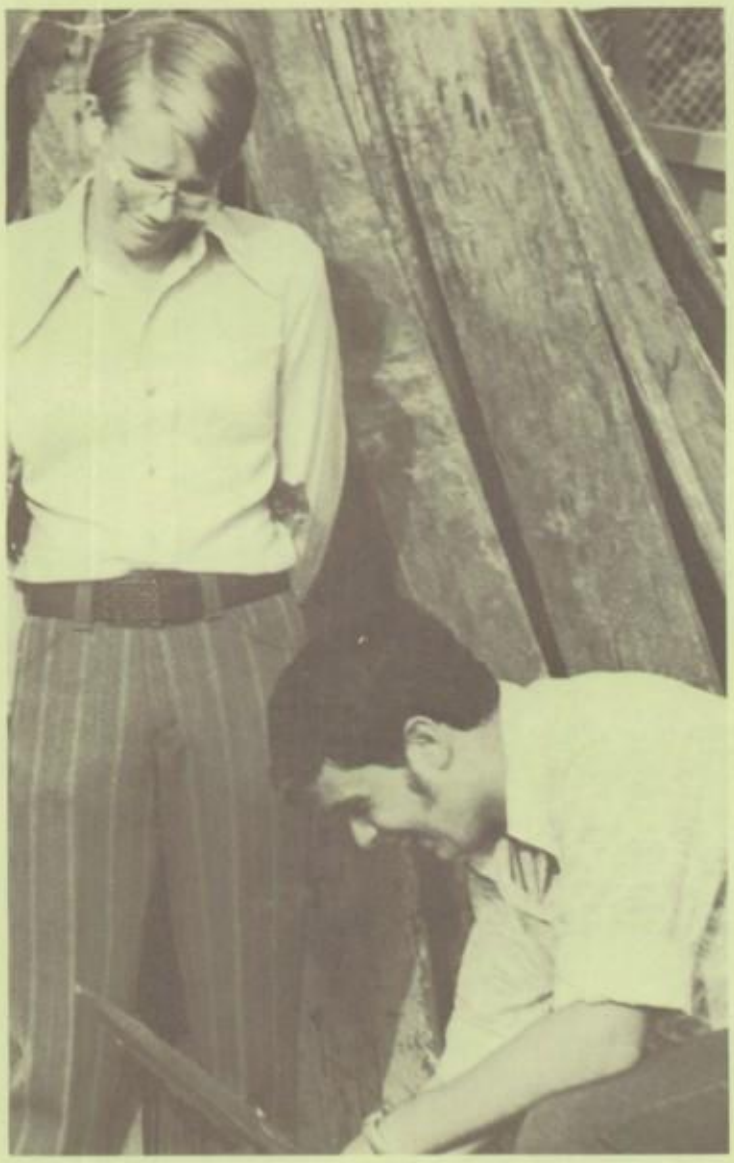


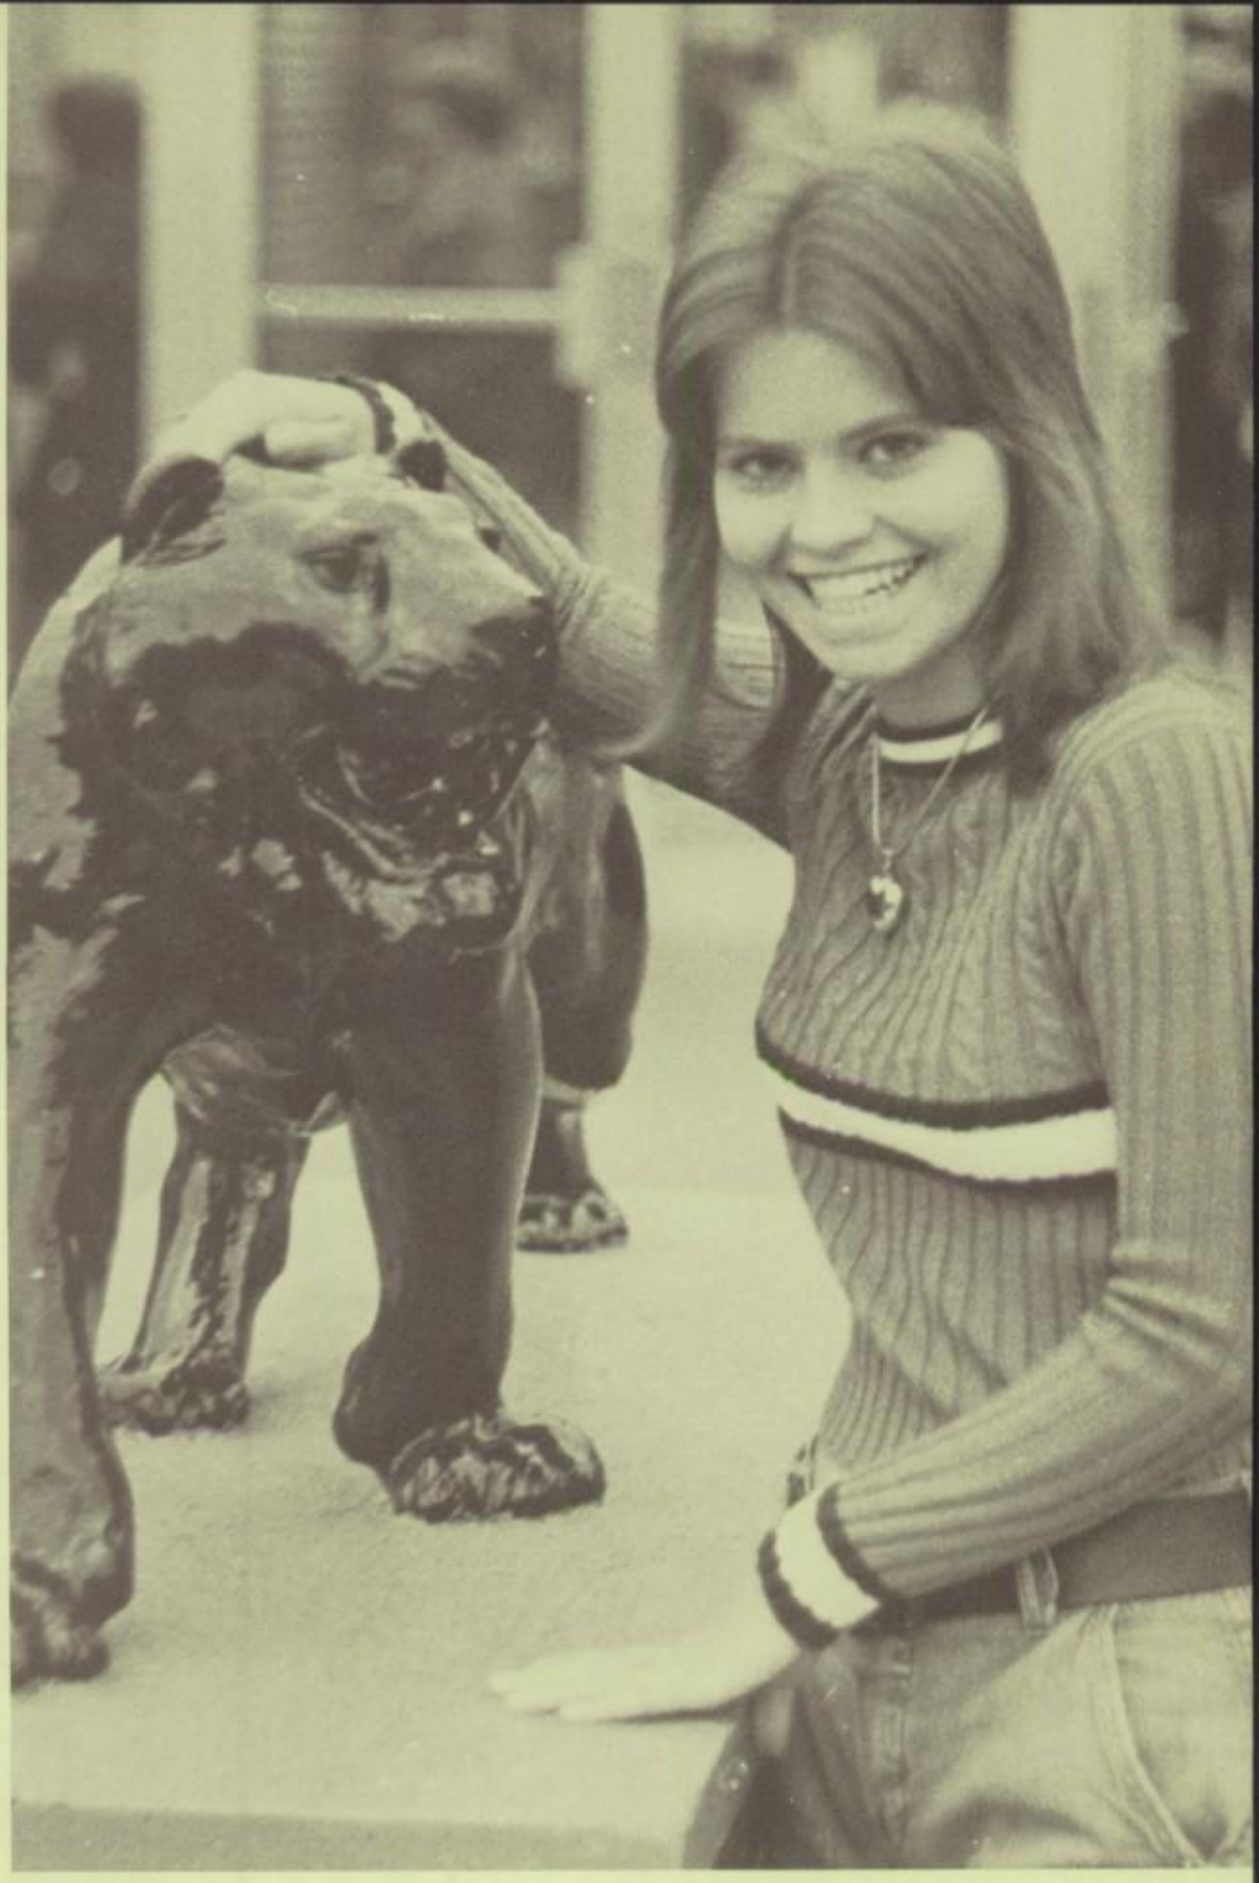
Showing interest in
Extra-curricular activities
Broadened students'
Scope of knowledge



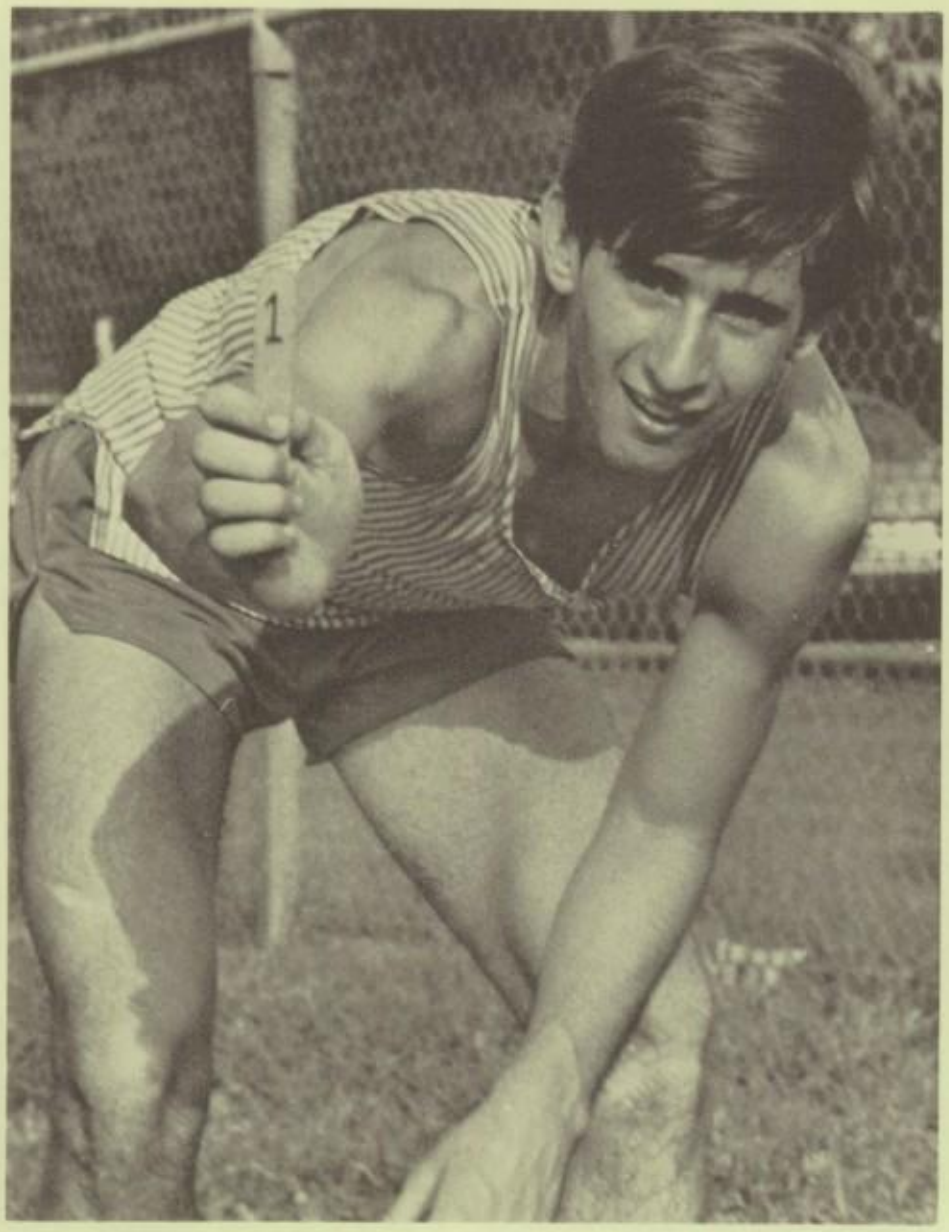


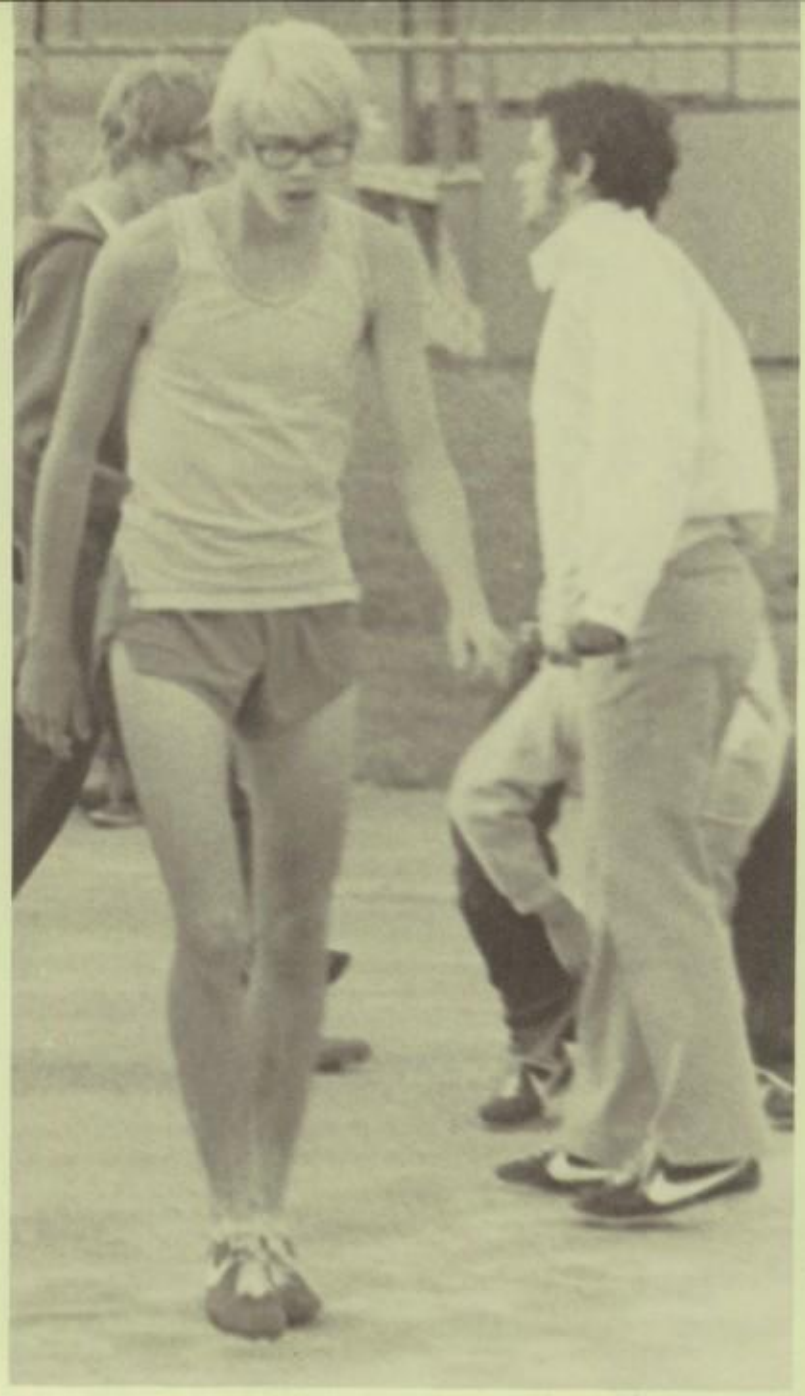






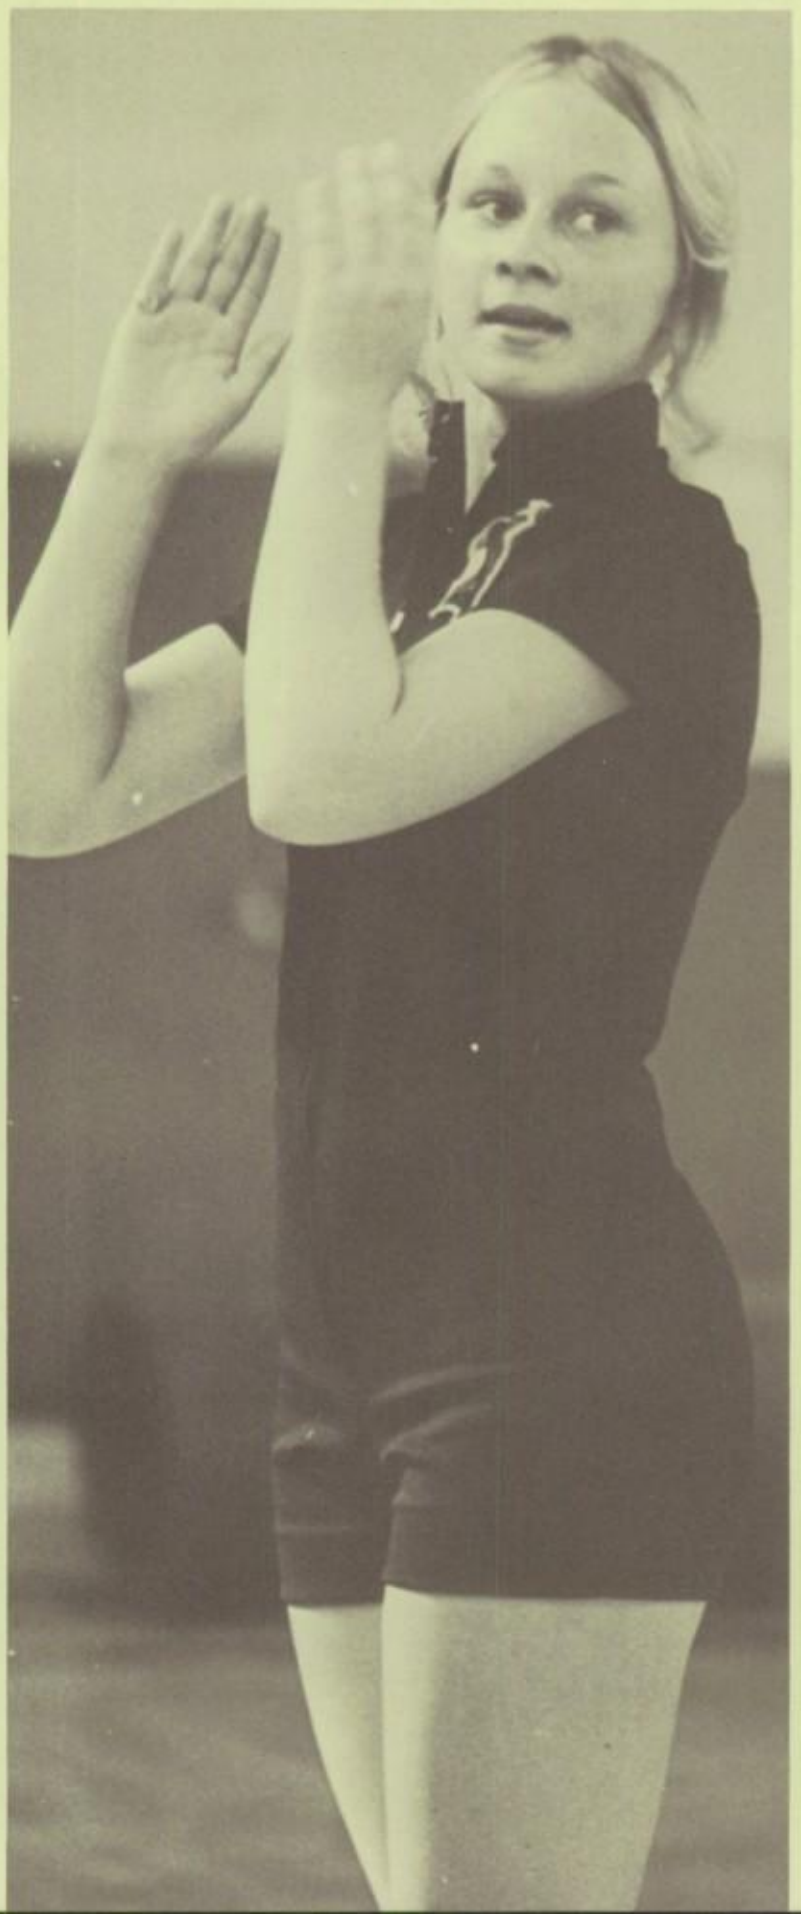
Out of school
And "raring to go,"
Waiting to show 'em
What they know.

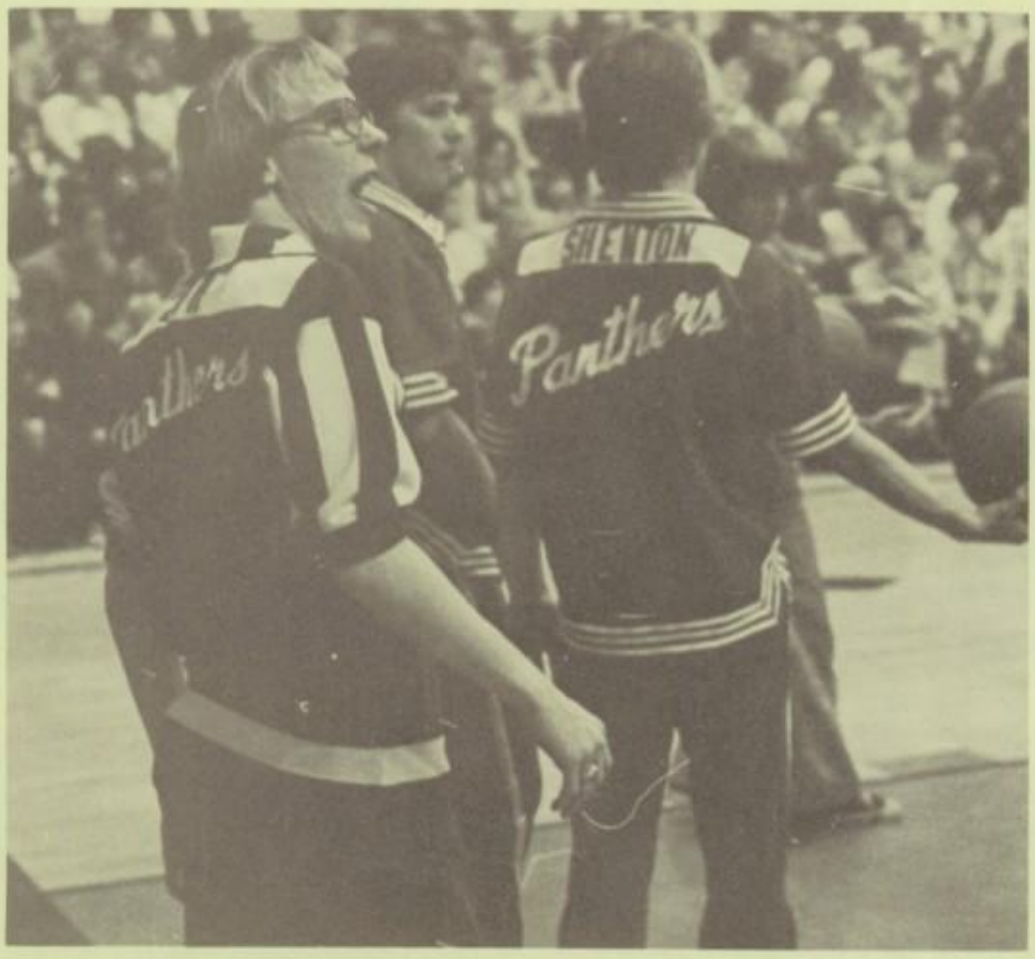




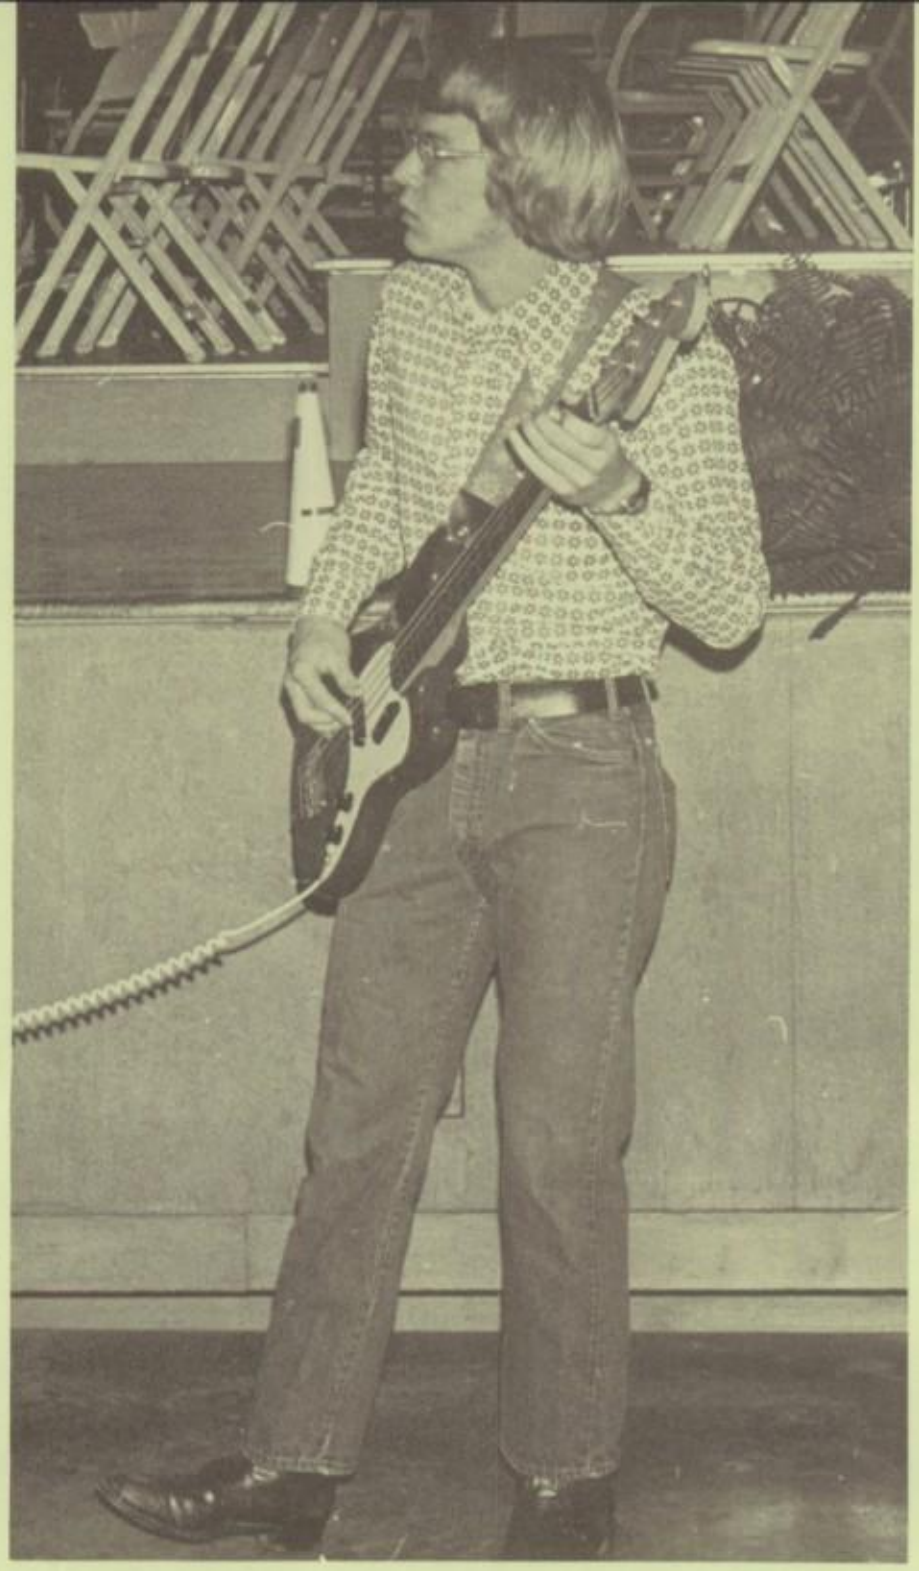
The Cross Country team
Contained the best of RHS.
They sprinted through
Thick and thin
To cross the finish first.

Always cheering their best,
RHS cheerleaders led the rest
In giving Riverside athletes
That extra bit of energy
To get it together.

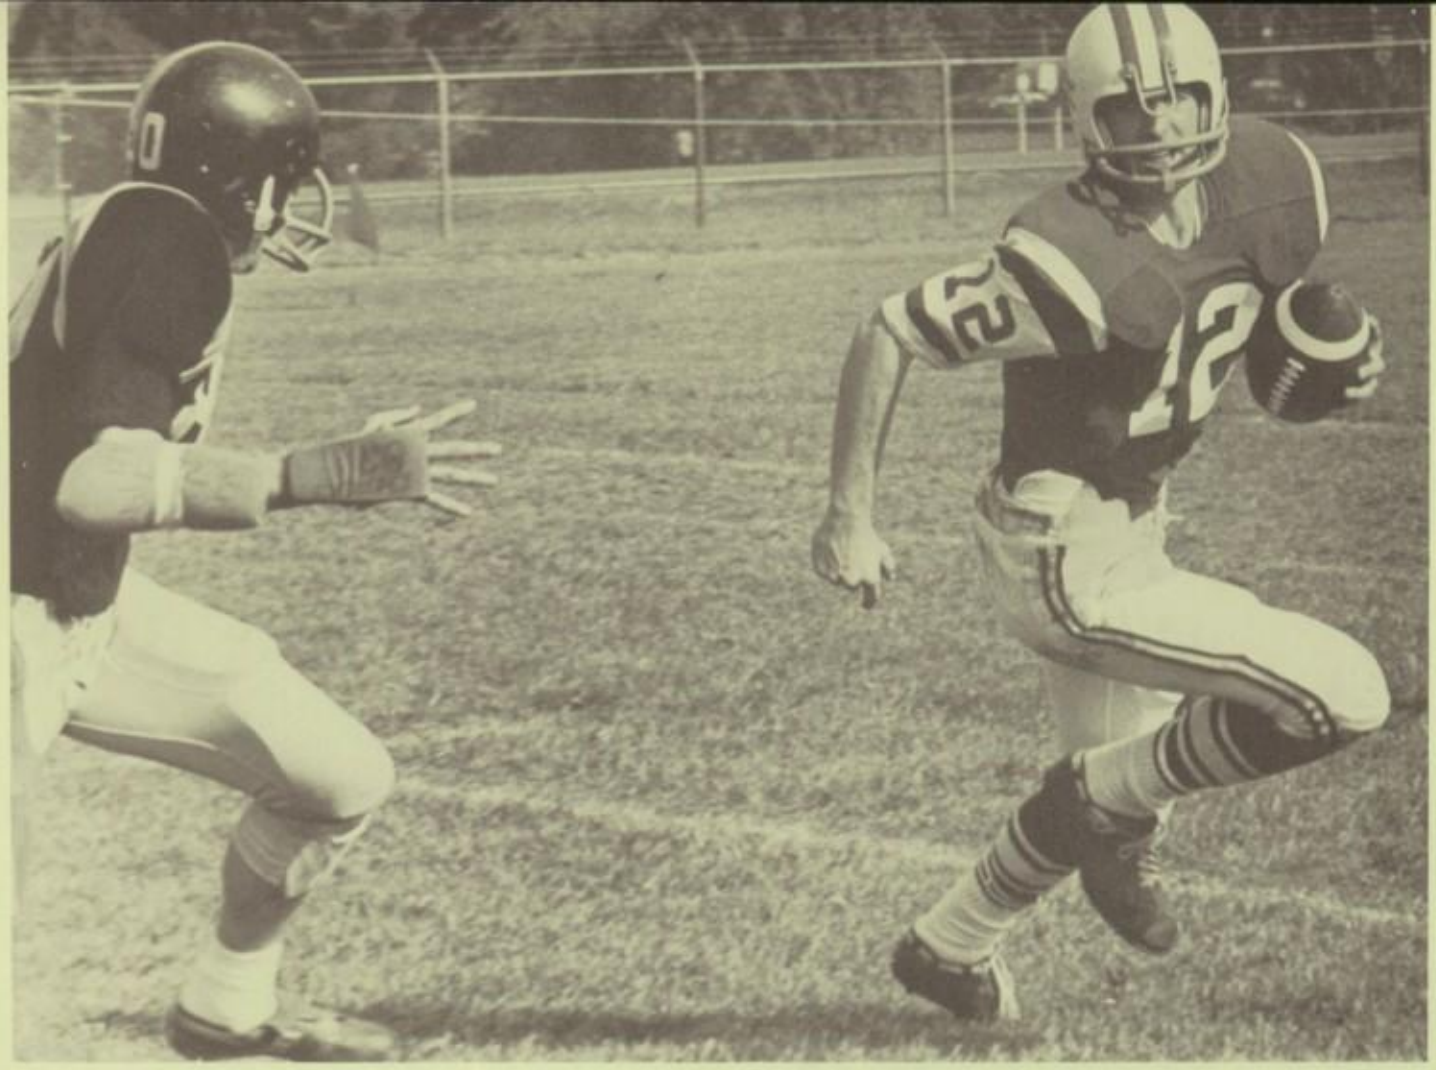


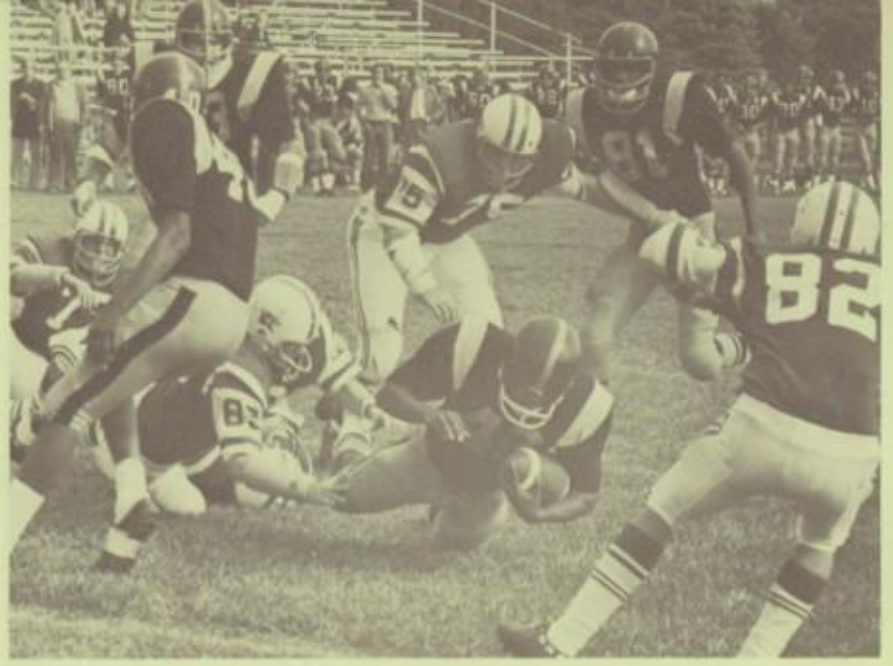


Panthers



Planning things
That you enjoy
With all the Folks
You know.
Having fun
With leisure time
In life without a foe.





They tackled and fought,
Never giving up or Giving in.
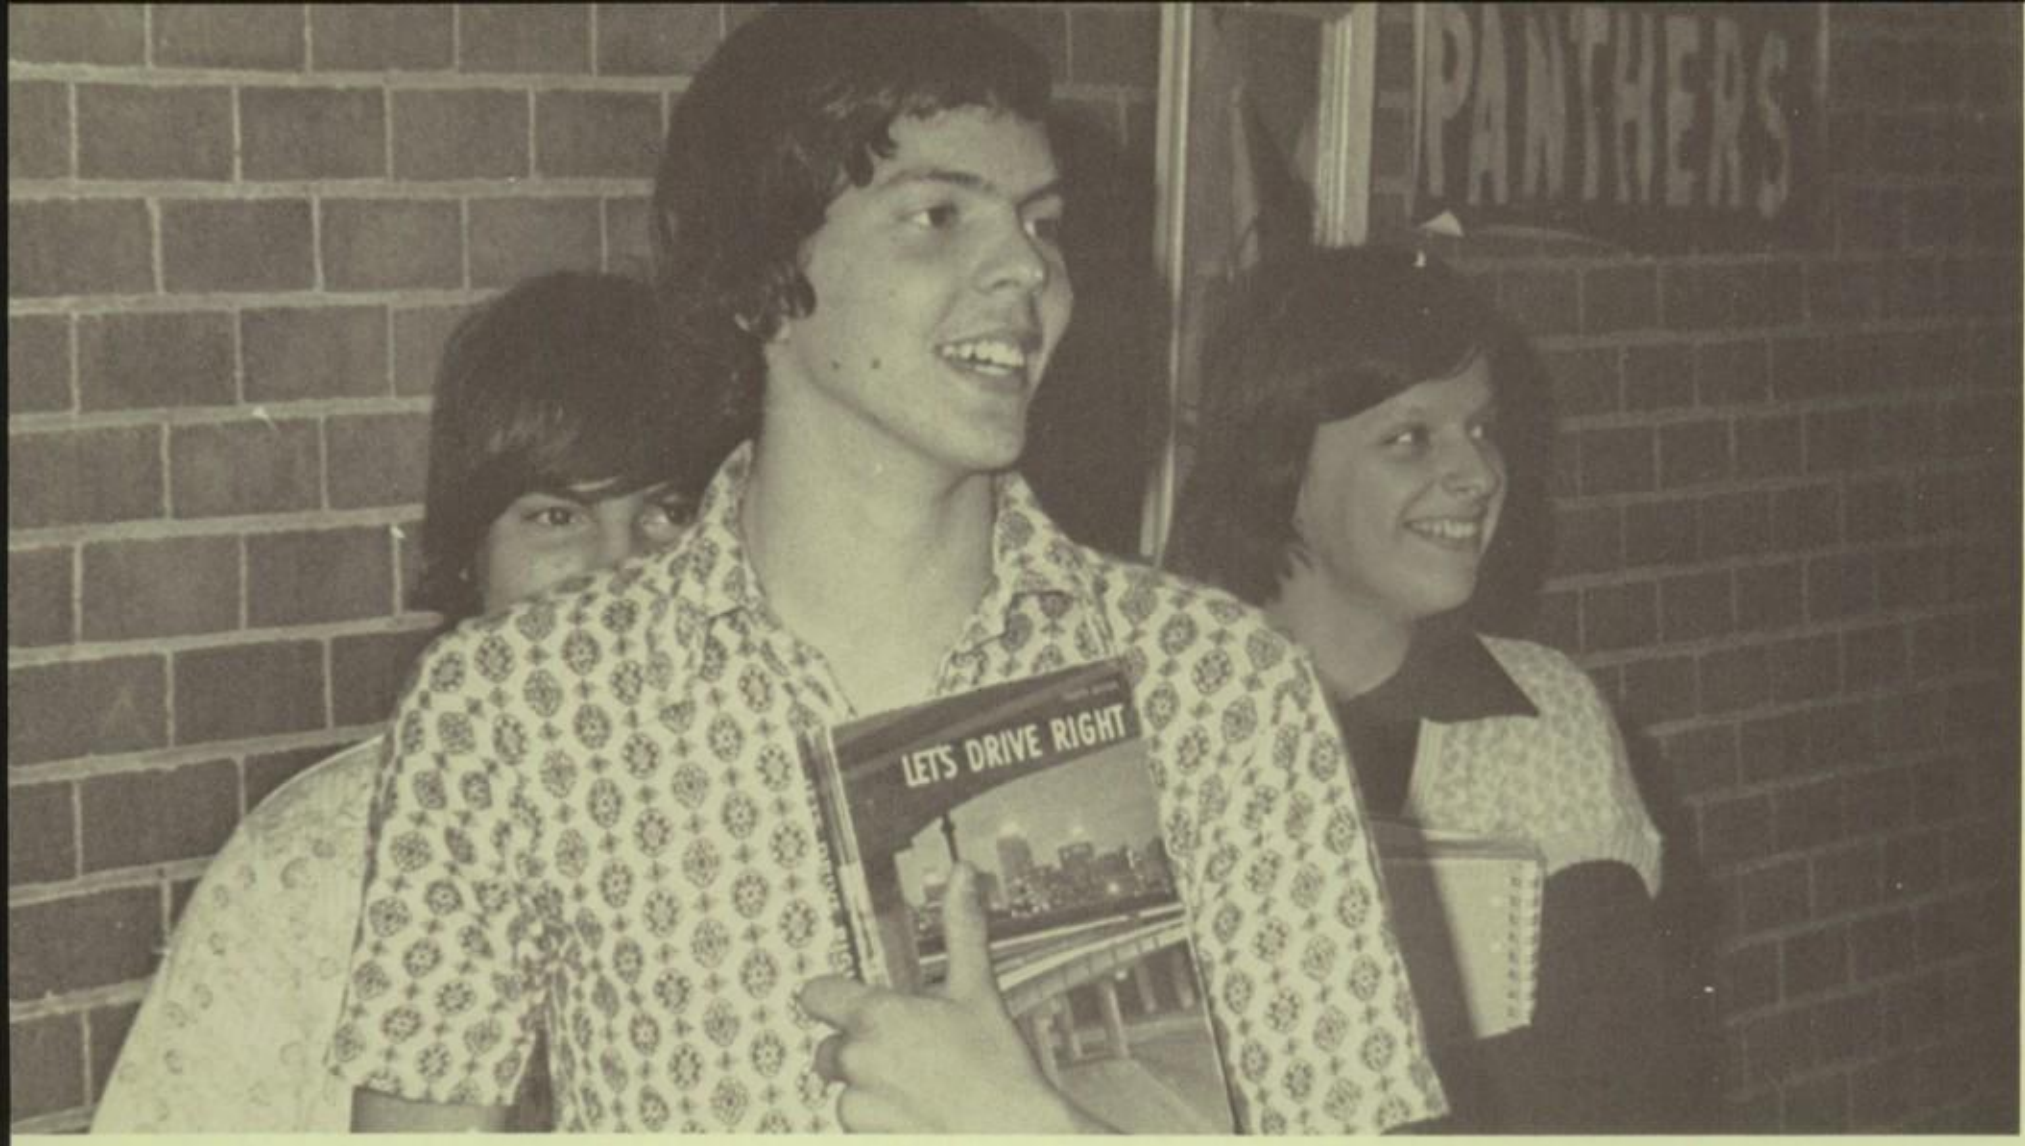
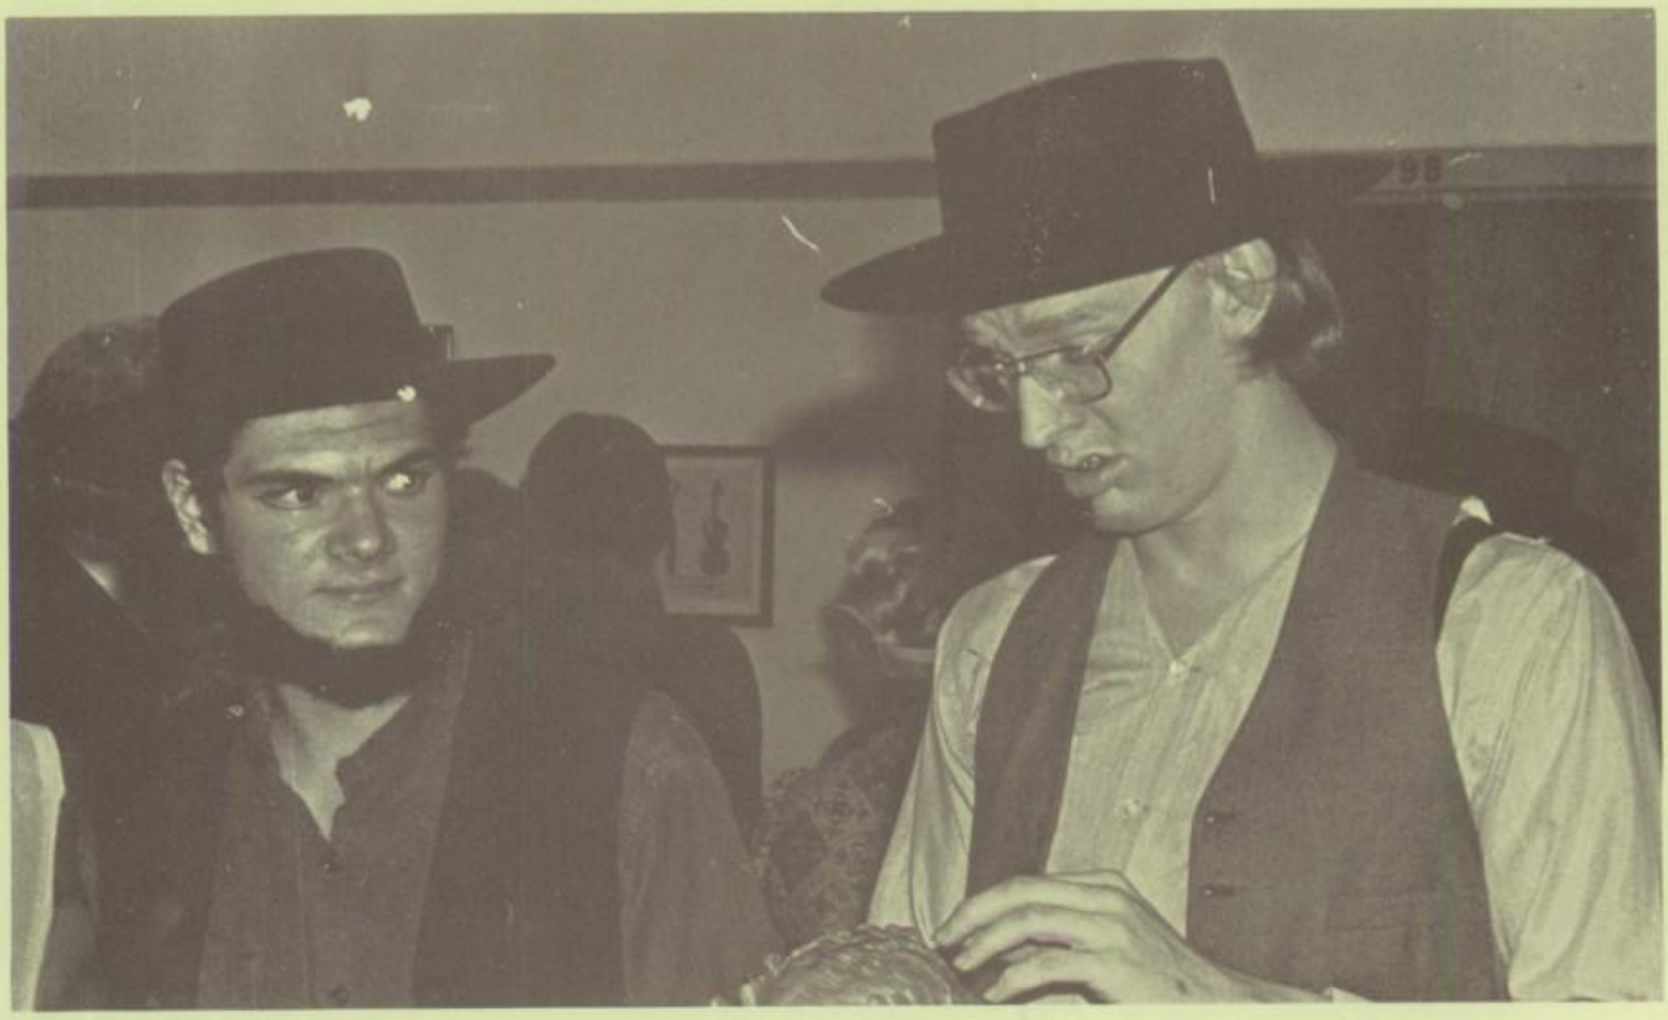
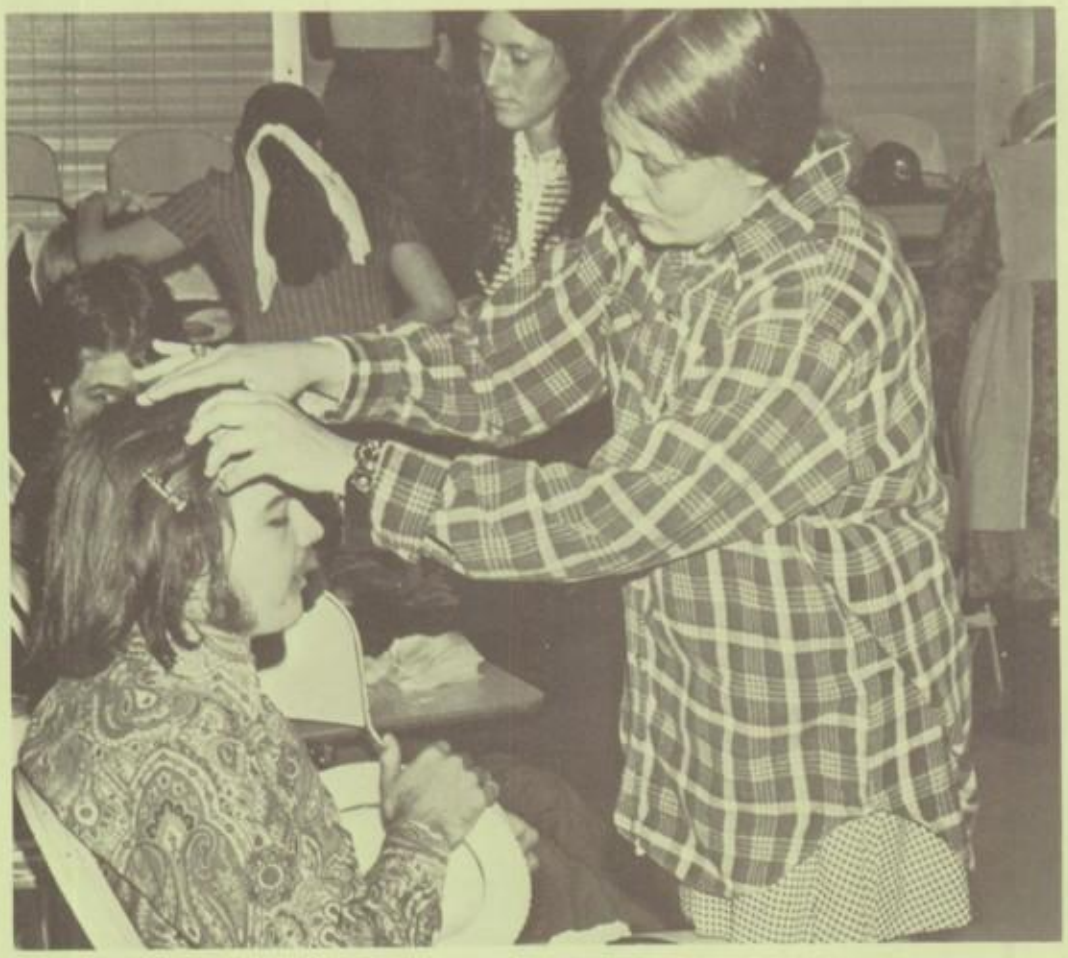
The Football Team
Gave their best.

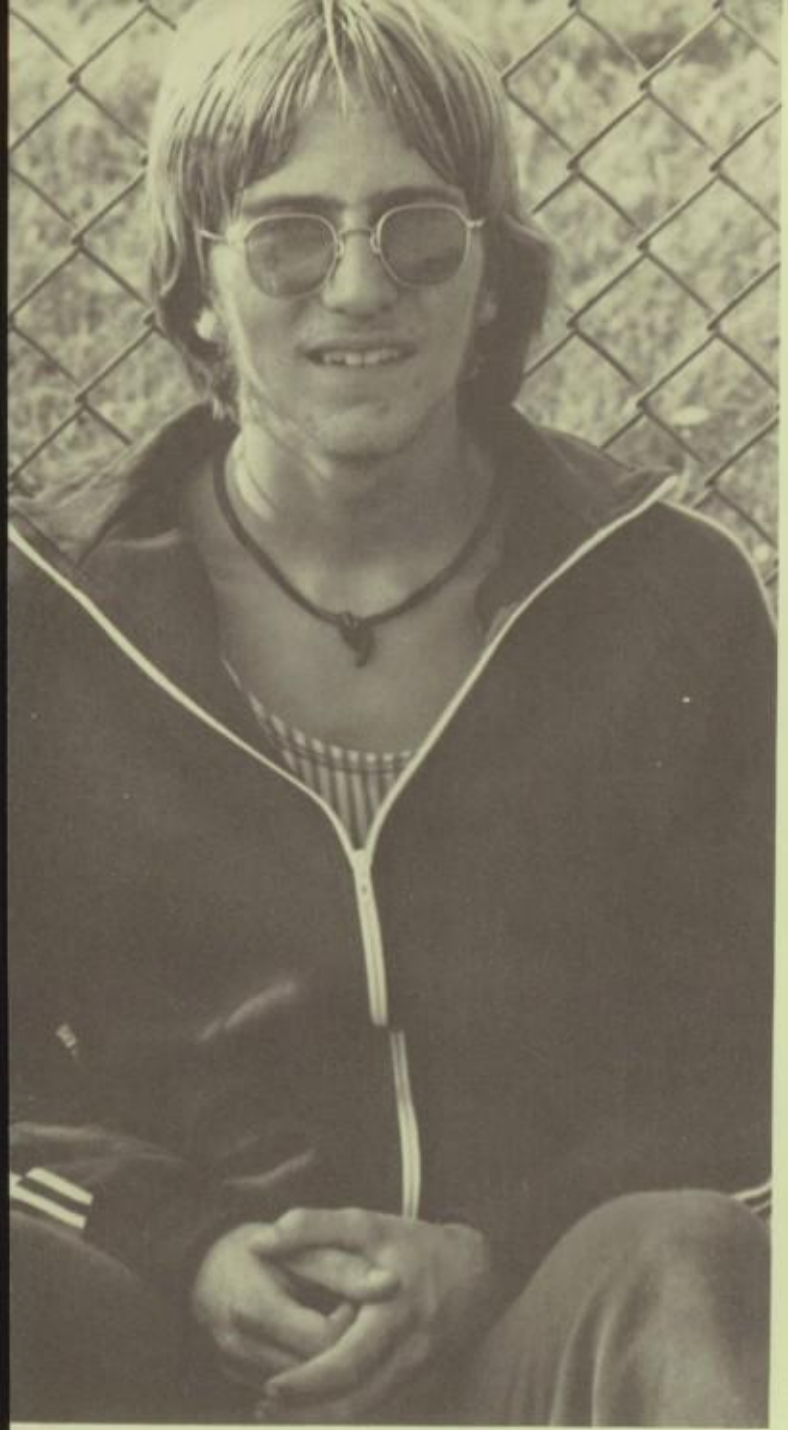


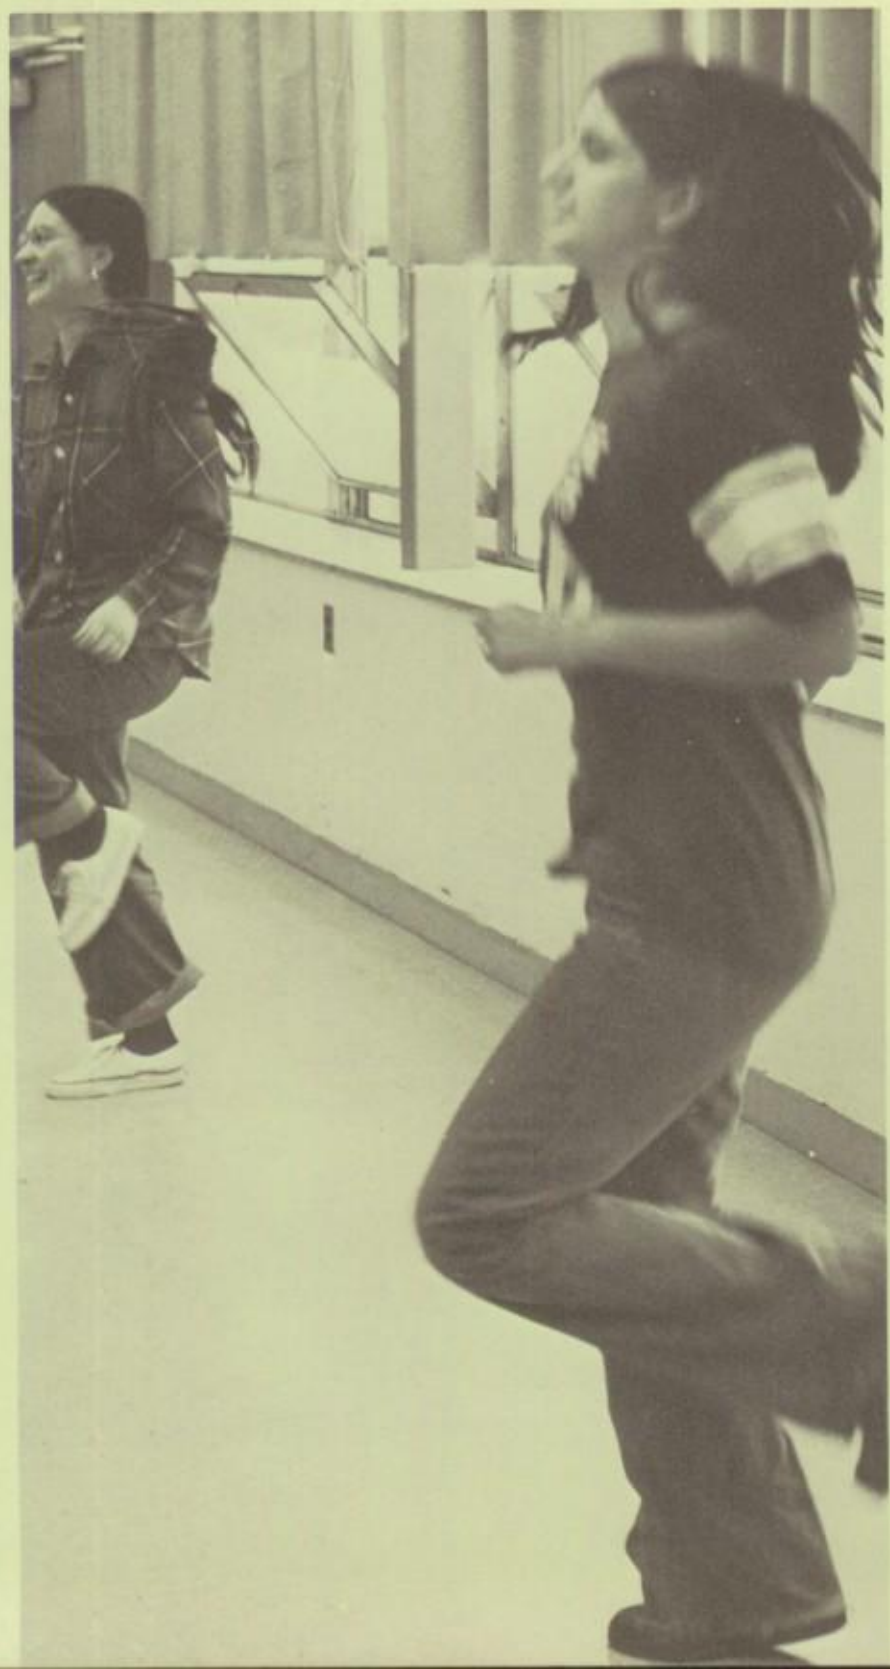
A variety of kids
Go to Riverside.
Regardless of their differences,
They're all the same. Together
They give Riverside its fame.

The cast devoted long hard hours
To make the acts just right.
The dance routines and singing parts
Were practiced every night.
The musical was one of the best
Performances displayed,
And Riverside was proud to have
Plain and Fancy on its stage.









Seniors exemplified a
Type of maturity
Unique in its Own way.

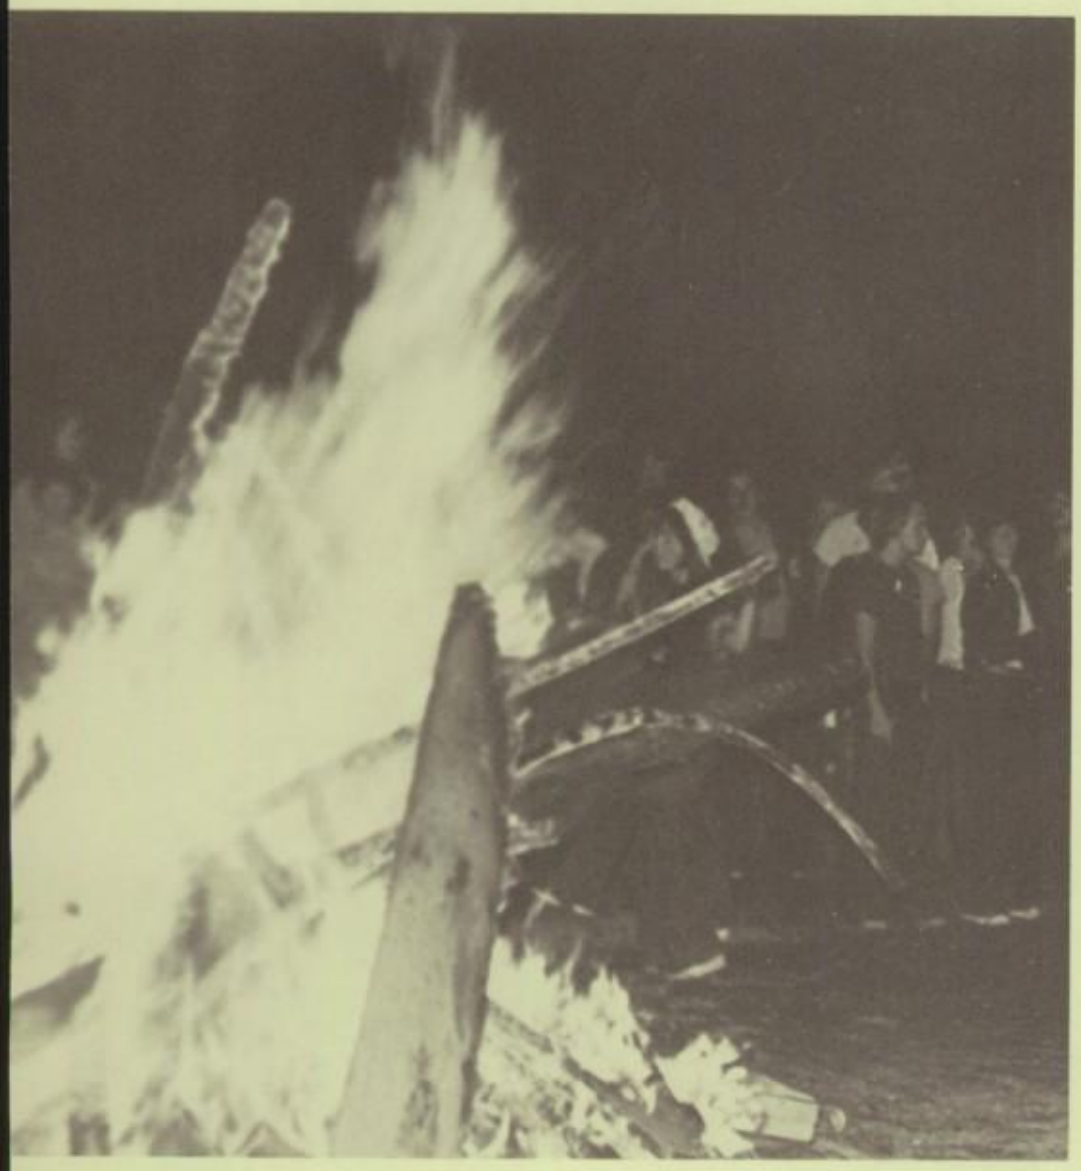
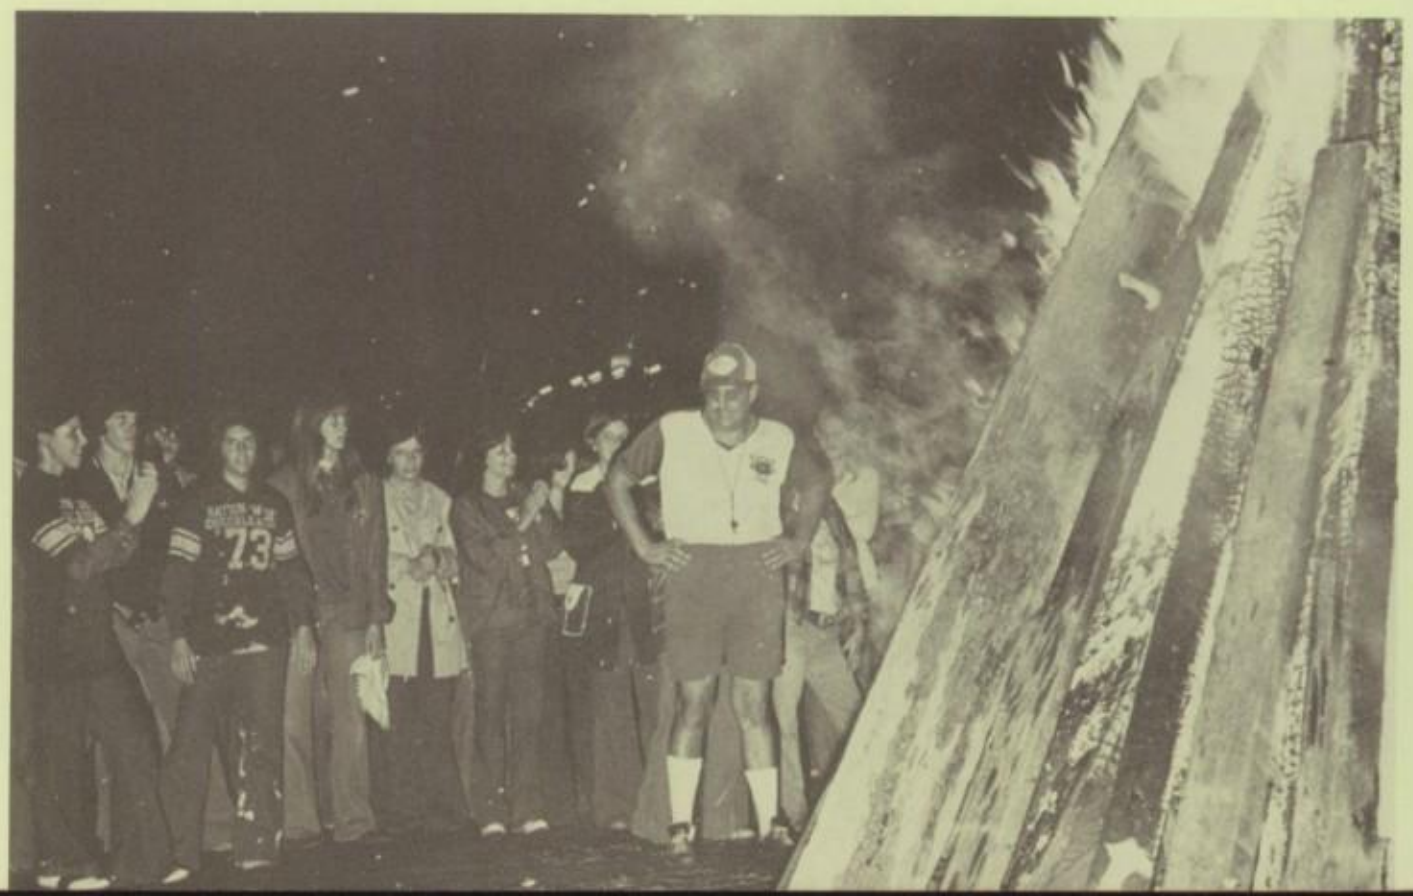
Hard working guys
Added determination
To talent and cooperation
To create a
Winning Basketball Team.



The bonfire ignited
The football team
To fire up and
Do their best.



The guys and girls
Of the Senior Class
Dressed up in their worst array
To go out on the school gym floor
And entertain in their own way

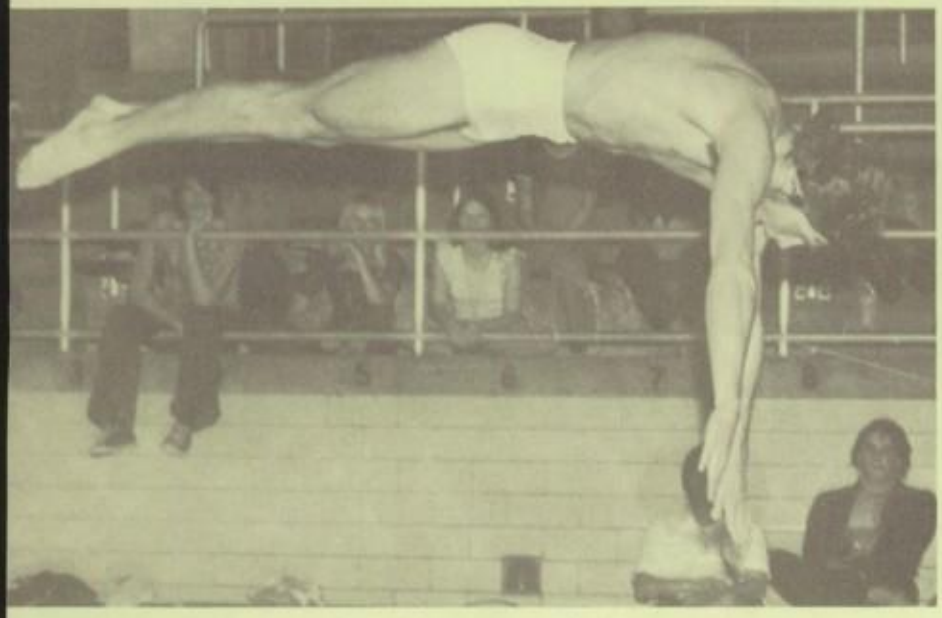
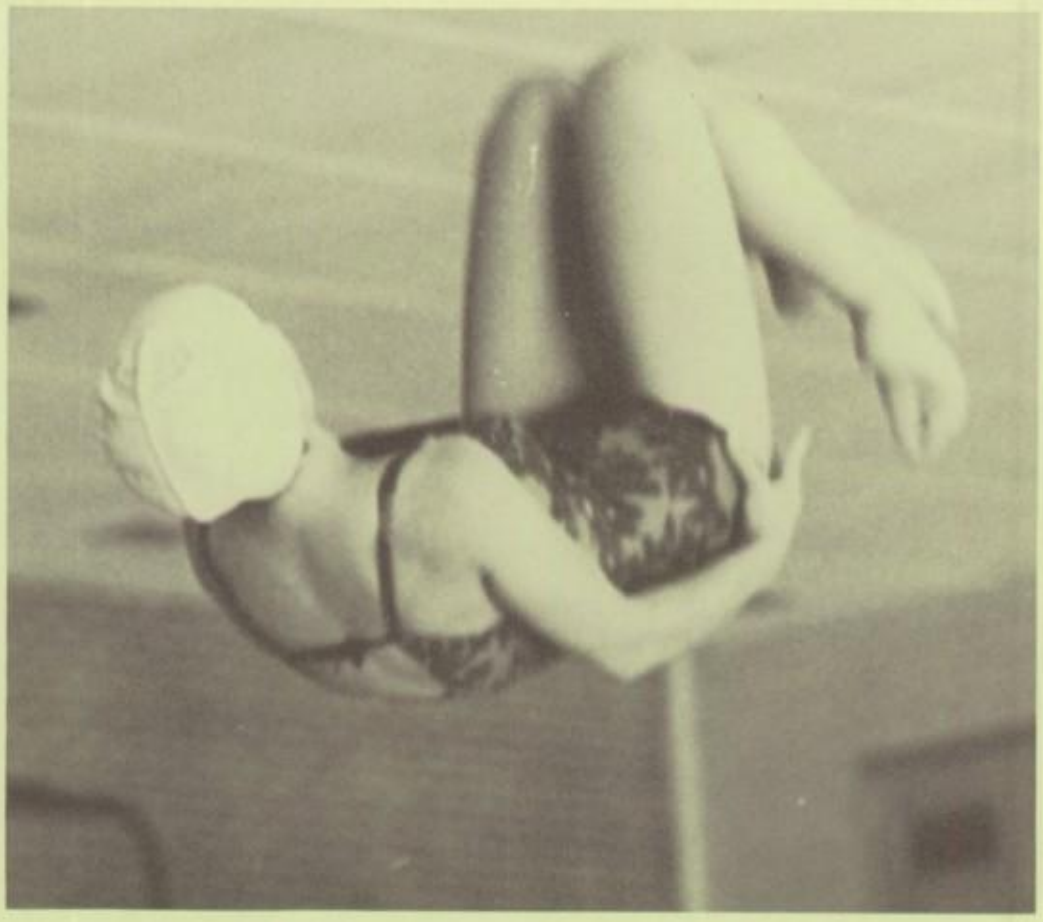
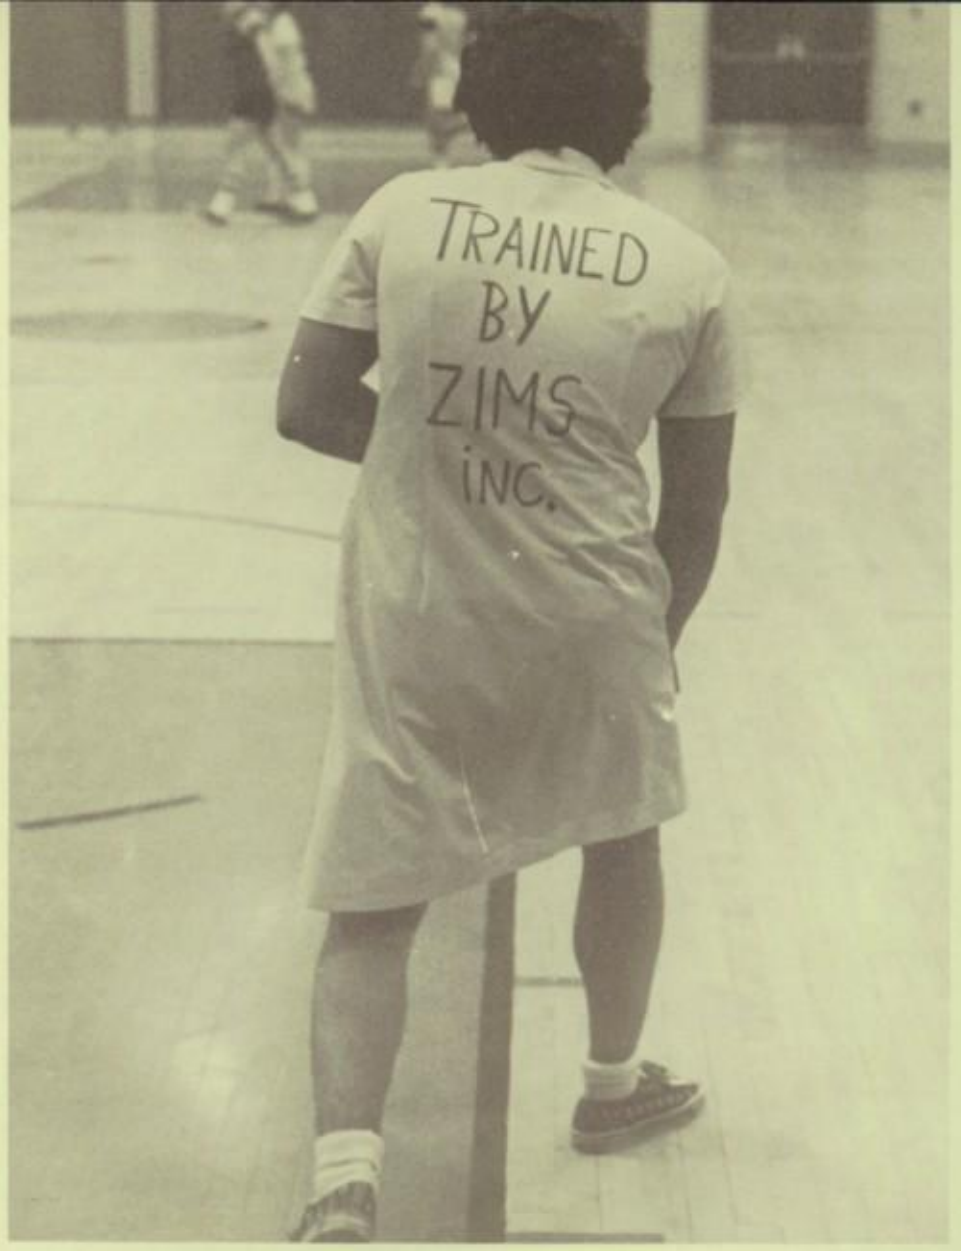
They struggled to mount the donkeys
And the crowd began to roar.
Each coaxing their
Beast of burden
To the basket
To raise their score.

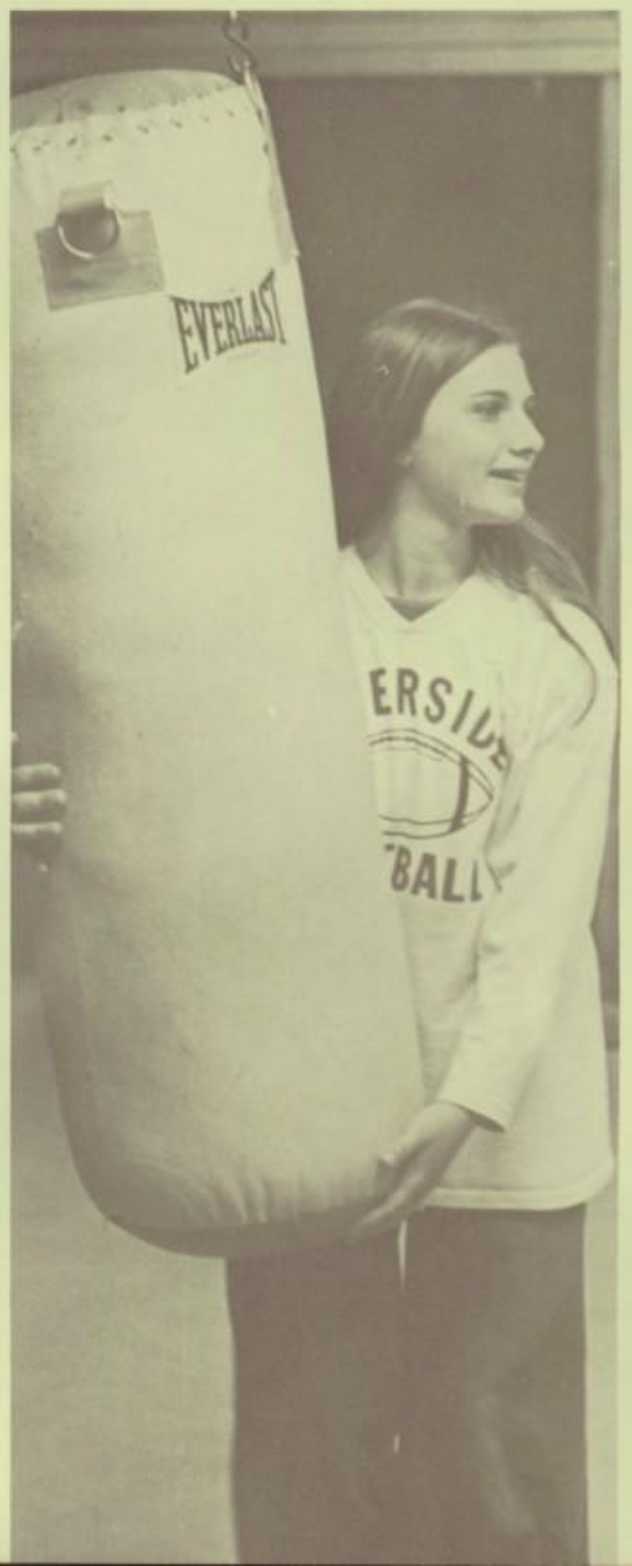


The shot of the gun
Lit the fire
In each swimmer's body
With a great desire
To achieve.

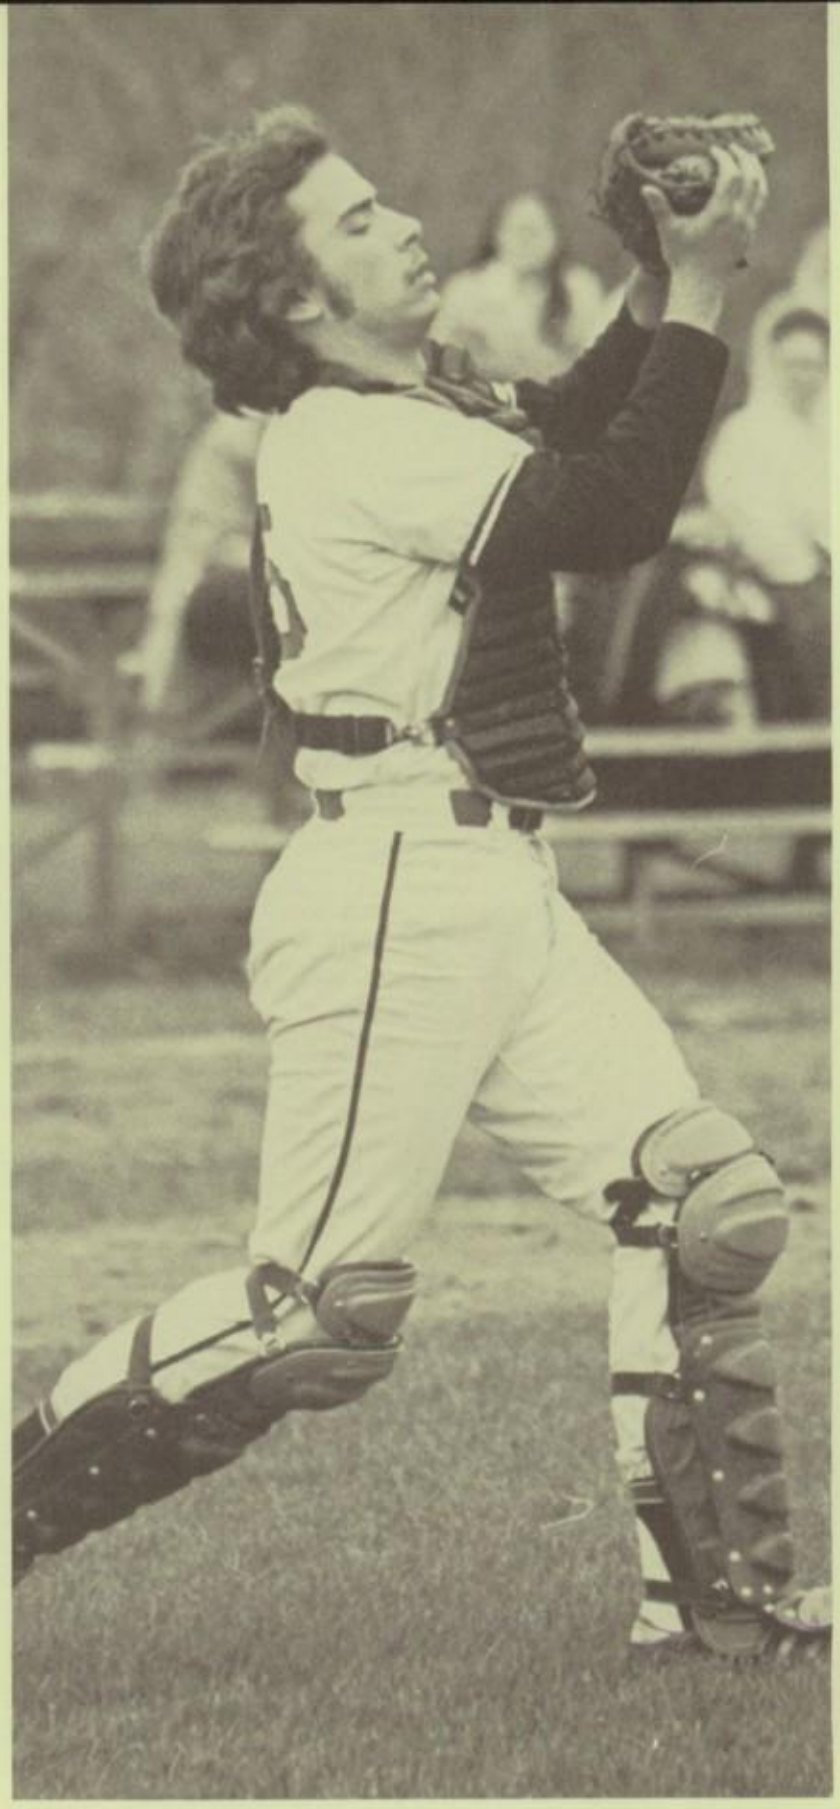


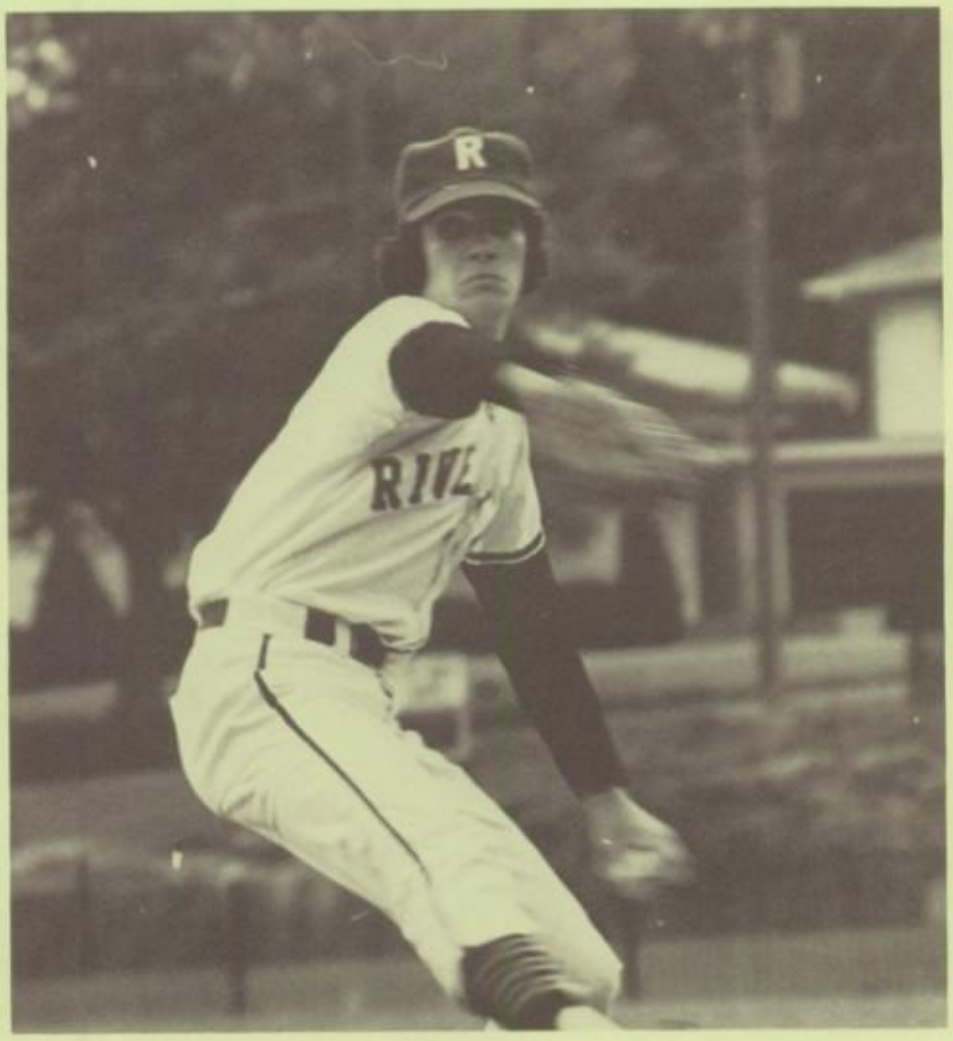


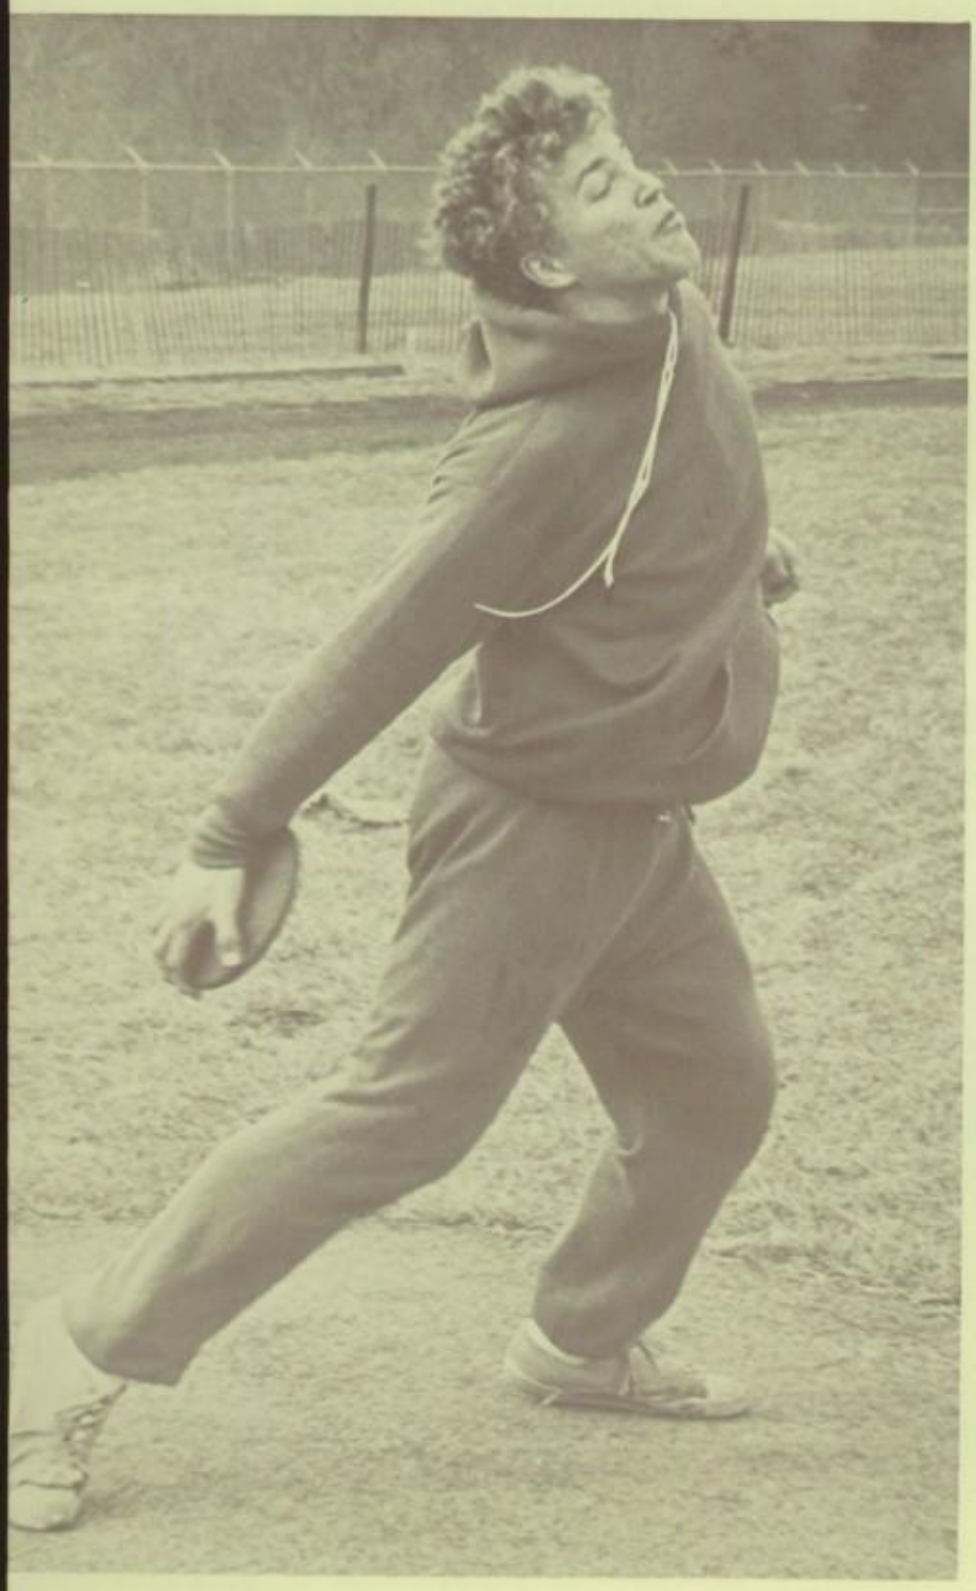
Riverside spirit was
At its best.
Clapping and cheering
With lots of zest
At all events.



The Baseball Players
Were the Diamond Men of RHS.
They batted with might,
Played each inning sportfully,
And won with pride.







Always out to do their best,
Our track team was above the rest.
Running fast and leaping high
Their attitude was "never say die."

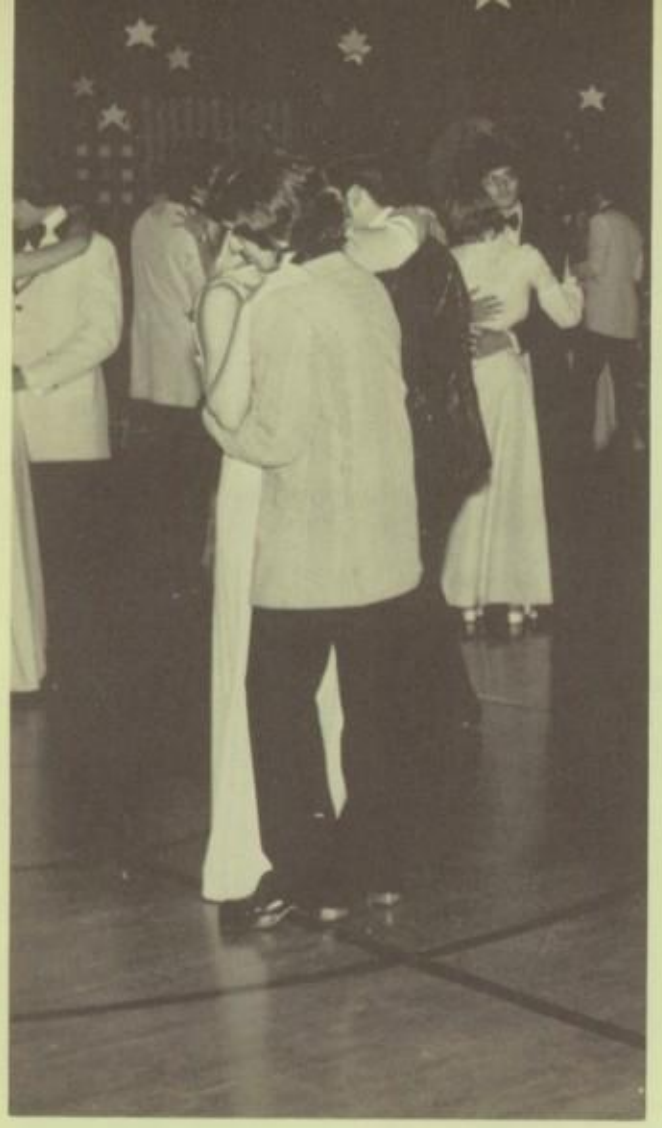
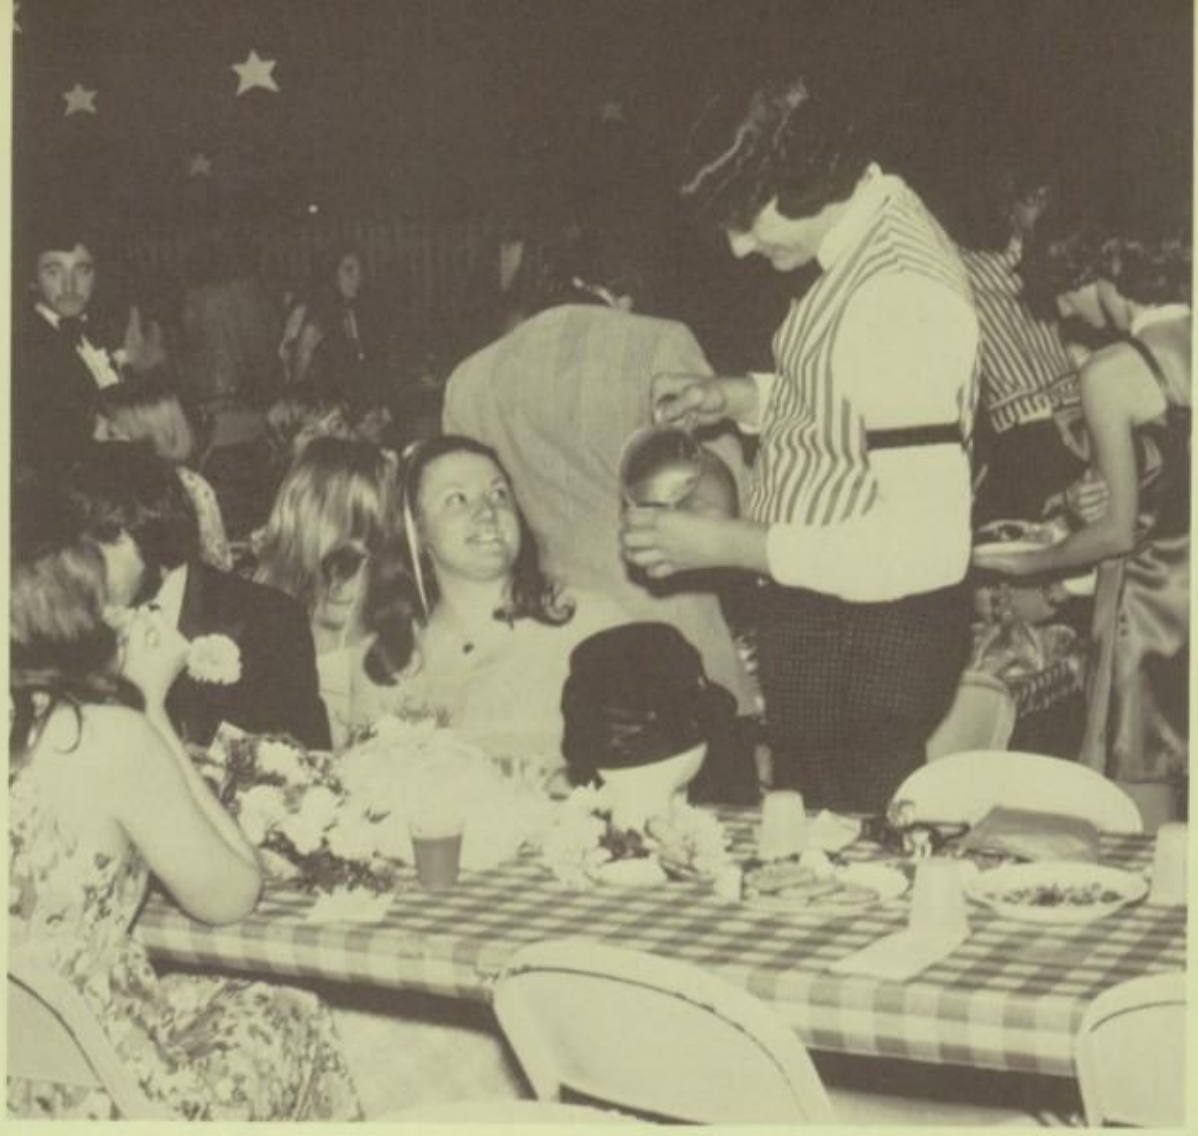
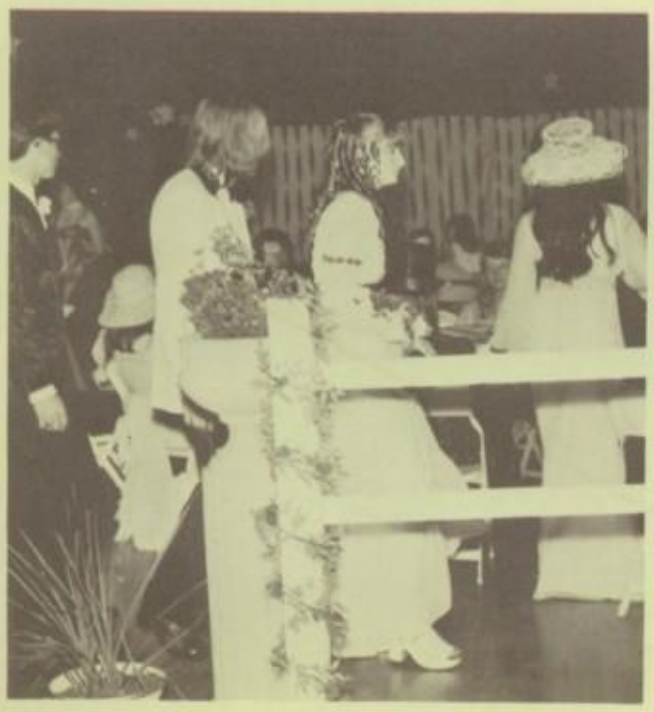
The senior boys
Select five girls
Who are special
To them
And their class
One to be crowned Queen.







"The Roaring Twenties" —
A happy time
In history and
In the memories of Students who Attended the Prom.

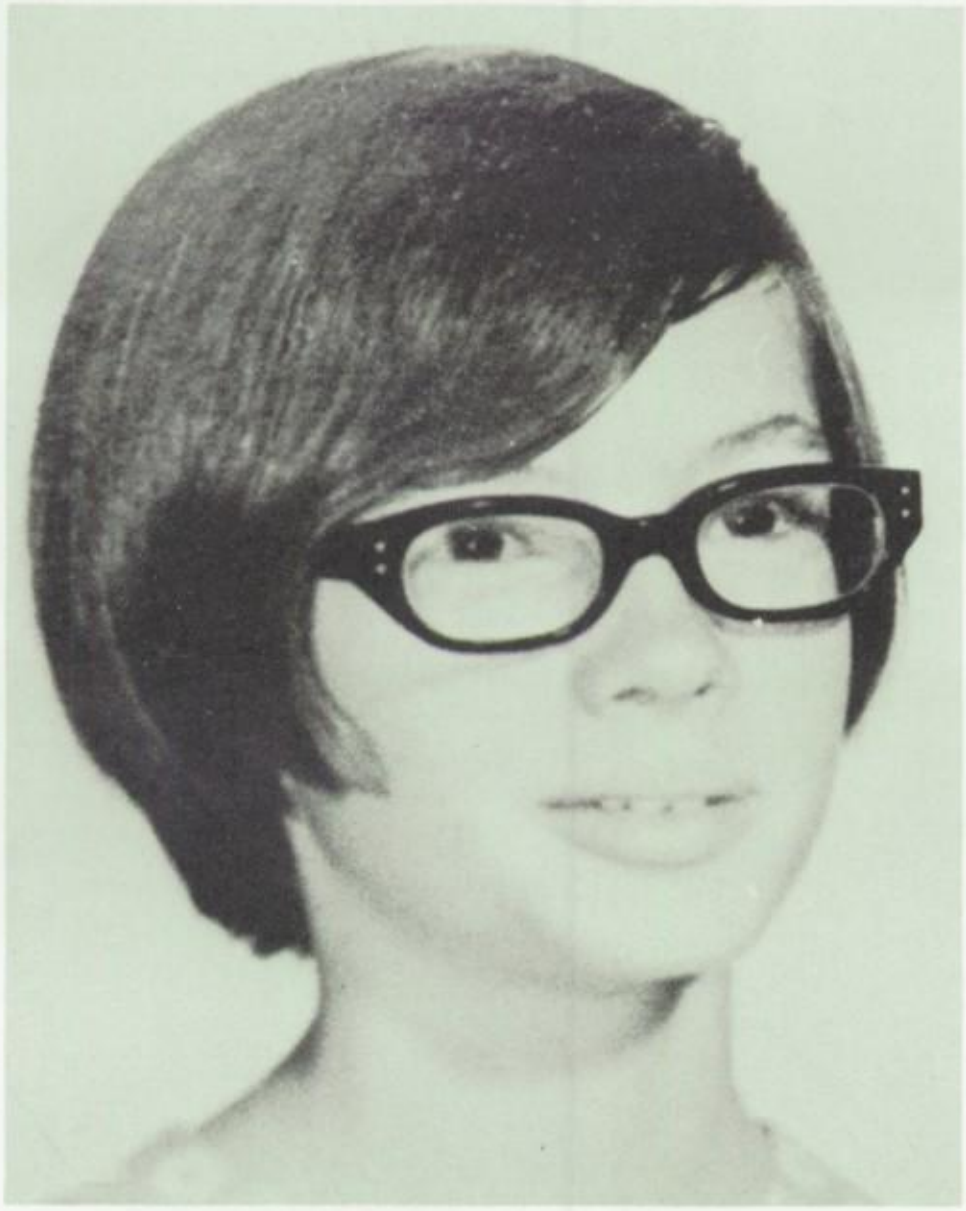
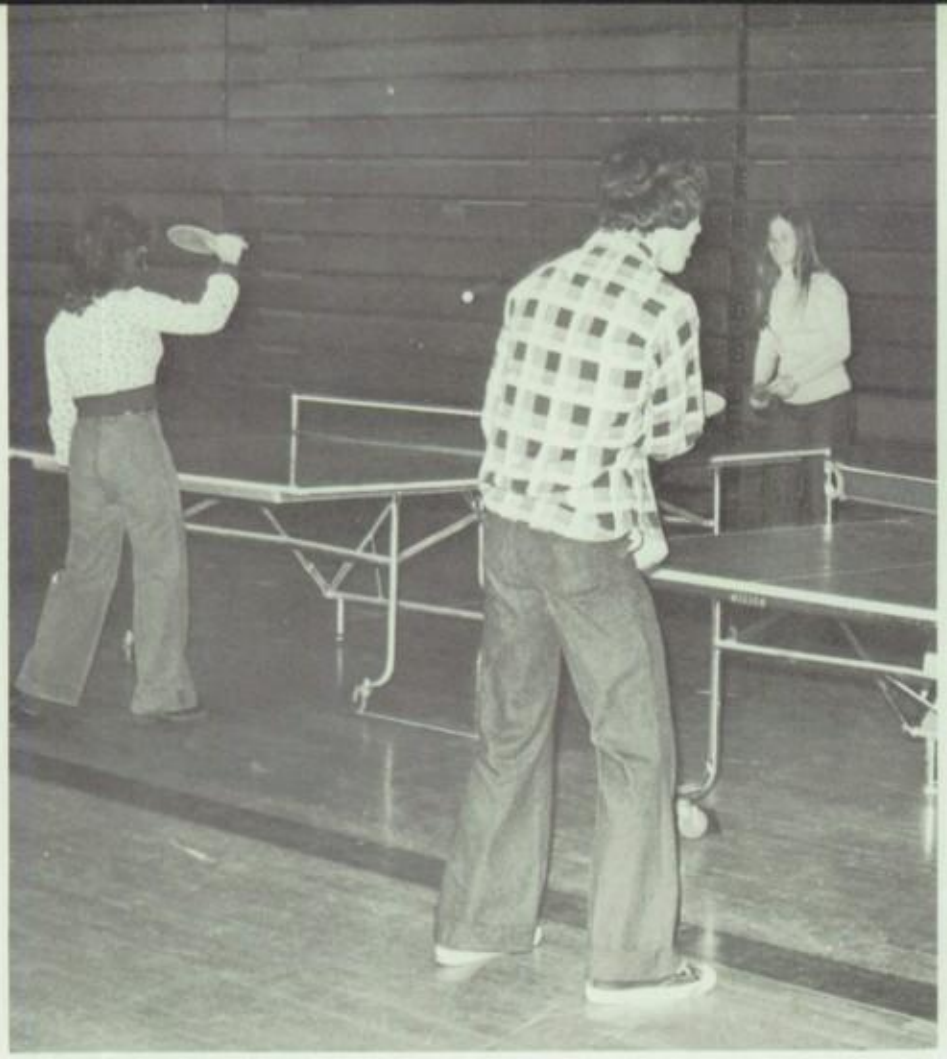
IN MEMORIAM

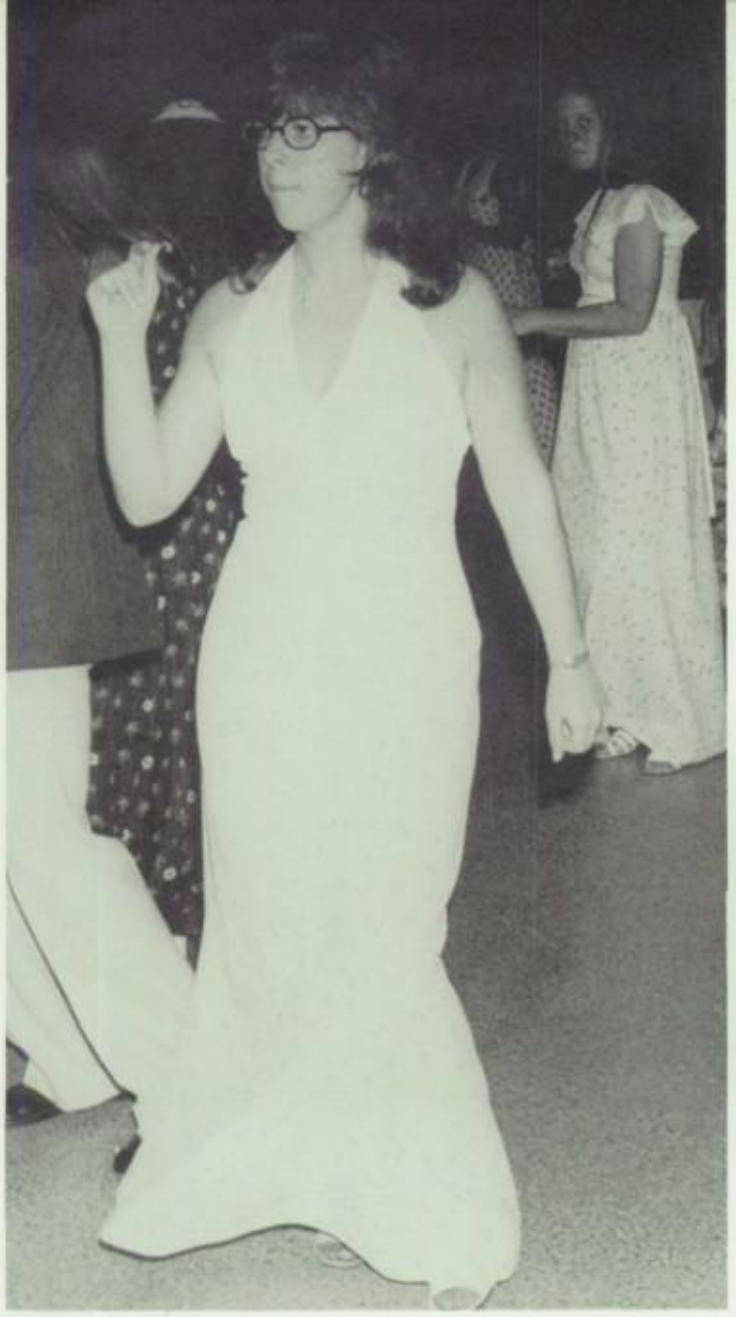


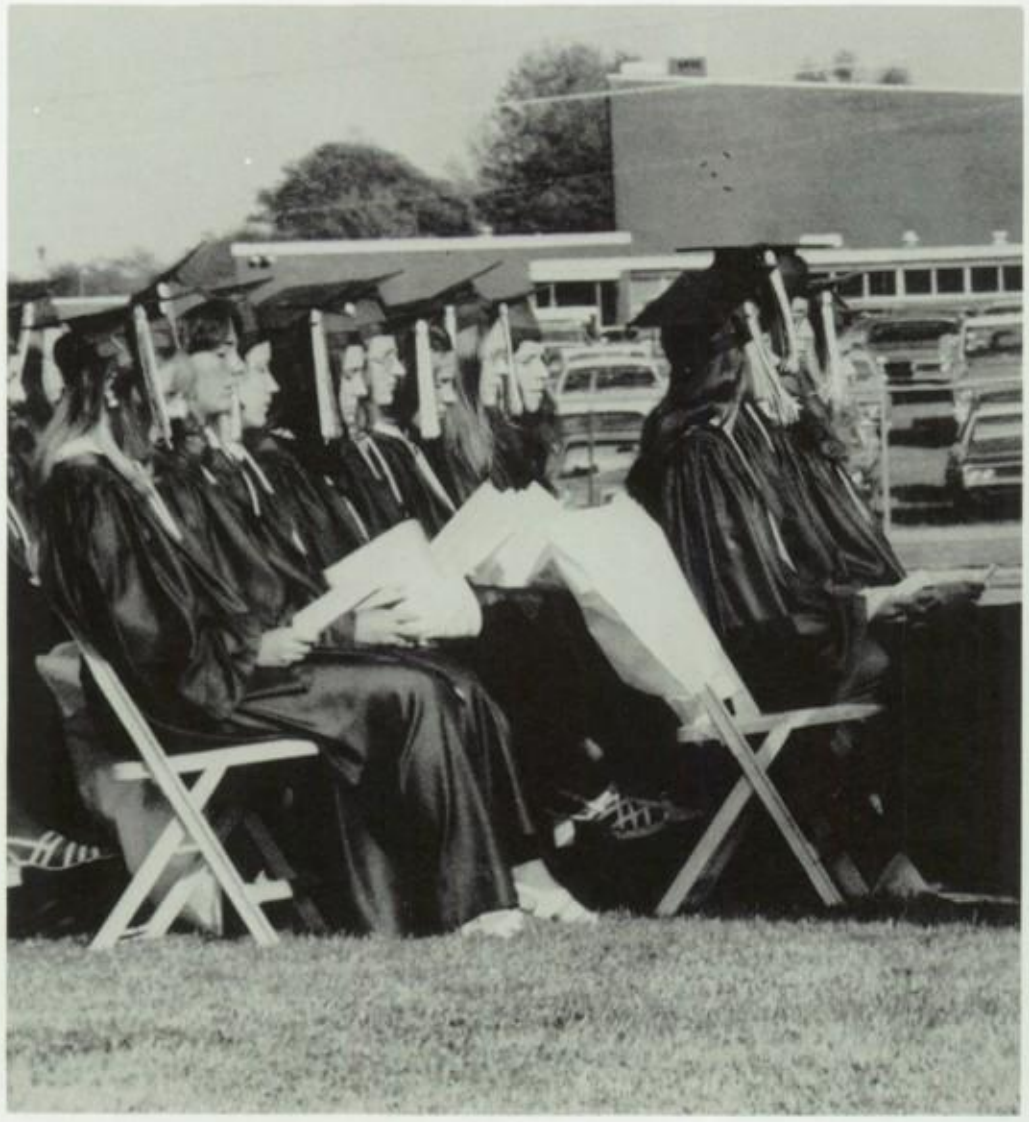
KIM LATHOM
June 16, 1956 — February 6, 1970
She will live forever in the hearts and minds of those who loved her.



Getting together
With the class
Enjoying fun and
Having a blast.
Just dancing and
Talking the night away
And never forgetting
The Sr. class party.

The Senior Dinner Dance
Was a night to celebrate
Another milestone in one's life.
Surely it was a night
To remember forever.





Hearing the Alma Mater . . .
Receiving a diploma . . .
Turning the tassles . . .
A last fleeting glance . . .
Lasting memories
Not to be forgotten.
